GSI Plans $40,000 Clean Air Program

Bag House for Electric Arc Furnace; Lipsett Ok'd for Open Burning

A $40,000 bag house system for the electric arc furnace at General Steel Industries' local Castings Division plant is to be installed to reduce emissions into the air.

Notification of the emission reduction program was received Monday night by the Granite City Air Pollution Control board during a meeting at the city hall.

The bag house system planning is nearing completion, and Henry Bieniecki, city clean air board chairman, said the board was advised the installation is to be started in the near future.

The chairman also reported the state Air Pollution Control board has given permission to Lipsett Steel Products on East 23rd street to continue open burning of scrap railroad cars pending the filing of an emission reduction program early in April. The city board had granted the firm an extension to its variance to expire in August.

Bieniecki said the American Railroad Car Dismantlers Association, with a membership of 21 firms including Lipsett, has received a federal grant and plans to proceed with experiments with a water jet system for dismantling rail cars. The experiment is to be conducted at a scrap yard near Chicago, and the local board's technical secretary, Washington University Prof. Erwin Hoelcher, has been invited to view the procedure when it is demonstrated.

The local chairman noted the state board in ordering a halt to open burning last month, did then agree there was no economical method of dismantling rail cars and reduce emissions and gave the local firm 30 days to submit an emission reduction program, with permission to continue open burning.

Local regulations permit the variance only when winds are blowing away from the East Granite residential area.

The city clean air board's application for $22,000 federal funds has been sent to Washington, D.C., and is now at the regional office in Chicago for review. The grant would be on a 42-to-51 basis with the city required to budget $11,000 during the 1969-70 fiscal year for air pollution control purposes.

During the current fiscal year, $5500 has been budgeted.

With the federal grant, the city could hire a full-time technician and also a full-time secretary-clerk who also could be a laboratory technician.

GIANT DUST-FUME COLLECTORS installed for two new electric furnaces at the American Steel Foundries plant.

ASF Electric Furnaces and Dust Collectors are Readied

The first of two 30-ton capacity electric arc furnaces to be installed at the American Steel Foundries' Granite City plant is nearing completion. It was announced today by A. P. Steinhilber, works manager.

Huge dust and fume collectors, designed to meet the most modern codes governing air pollution, will be completed at the same time, Steinhilber noted. The collectors stand 35 feet high, are 42 feet long, and each can process up to 96,000 cubic feet of air per minute.

A pelletizing machine will be used to convert the collected dust into small marble-like pellets for dust-free disposal.

Steinhilber said the entire electric furnace project is scheduled to be completed late this year. "This will give us furnaces of the most modern design and will also improve the efficiency of our operation," he noted.

American Steel Foundries is a major supplier of cast steel components for the nation's railroads. It is an operating unit of Amsted Industries, Chicago.

Briggs, Ottwein Win in Primary

Few Go to Polls; State Senator Runoff Election on April 29

Harry Briggs, veteran supervisor of Nameoki township, won the Democratic nomination for senator of the 33rd Senatorial District in Tuesday's special primary, defeating his nearest opponent almost two-to-one.

On the Republican ticket, where only two candidates were in the race, Dr. Merrill Ottwein, Edwardsville veterinarian, won the nomination three-to-one.

Briggs polled the bulk of his total district vote in the Quad-City area. Of the total of 3127 votes, 2424 of them were tallied in Granite City, Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau townships.

In all 144 precincts of the ten-township Senatorial District, Briggs' 3127 total vote was a 1351-vote victory margin over a total vote of 1776 polled throughout the district by Dr. Patrick Riddleberger, a history professor at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern campus who polled 369 votes.

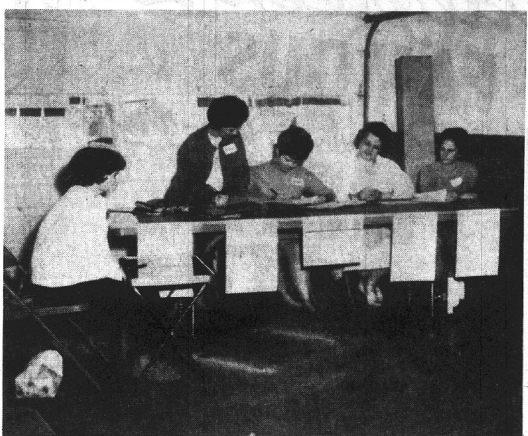

Other Democratic candidates were Robert Ford, Wood River township supervisor, who received 1066 votes in the district, and Sam P. Drenovac, a Chouteau township farm operator who polled 369 votes.

A fifth name was on the Democratic ballot — Walter T. "Buck" Simmons of Venice — but he had publicly announced his withdrawal from the contest and made no campaign. Simmons received 359 votes in the district, 192 of which were cast in the four townships of the Quad-Cities.

Ottwein, a newcomer in politics, polled 320 votes in the district, to defeat Raymond O. Rogers, mayor of Edwardsville who tallied 1016 votes. The Republican ballot also included the name of David F. Mallett, Collinsville auto dealer, who had withdrawn from the contest and made no campaign. He received 97 votes in district-wide balloting.

Briggs and Ottwein, as the result of Tuesday's primary, will run against one another in the regular runoff election on April 29. The winner will be made state senator of the 33rd District to succeed former Senator Paul Simon of Troy, who resigned the office after he was elected Illinois lieutenant governor last November.

Thieves Loot Homes-Cash, Jewelry, Wigs

Burglars entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dillard, 2316 East 25th street, Monday evening, taking items valued at more than $170 and $50 in cash. The thieves entered the home by breaking out the glass in a rear door after first smashing a basement window and finding they could not get in through the opening. Bedrooms were ransacked, with $30 cash taken from one room and $20 cash removed from Mrs. Dillard's purse, plus a green billfold containing her driver's license and credit cards.

Also stolen were a check book, a jewelry box and miscellaneous jewelry items, value unknown, a gold wrist watch valued at $125, and a $40 RCA table model radio.

The burglary occurred between 5 p.m. and when the couple returned home and found the door standing ajar at 10 p.m.

Two Wigs Stolen

Blonde wigs owned by Mrs. Esther Phillips, 1850 Poplar street, valued at $280, and by Mrs. Connie Costello, 4709 Kirkpatrick Homes, valued at $149, were stolen from the Costello apartment, Mrs. Phillips reported at 2:40 a.m. today. There was no forced entry, but Mrs. Costello said she has been leaving the back door open to permit entry by a baby sitter.

A stereo tape recorder, valued at $400, was stolen after 6 p.m. Monday from the home of Harold Sullivan, 1612 Prime rose avenue, the owner told police at 1 a.m. Tuesday.

Entry was gained by breaking the glass in a rear door which rock found in the backyard possibly was used by the thieves to smash the glass pane, police said.

A warrant charging theft of more than $150 was served upon Rodney G. Holmes, 18, of 2805 Emmer street, at 2:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Police said he and two boys, both 13, were arrested at 10 p.m. Tuesday at 2300 West 25th street.

GC Officer Named to Command NATO

President Nixon Selects Gen. Goodpaster, 54, For High Military Post

President Richard Nixon announced yesterday that Lt. Gen. Andrew Jackson Goodpaster, a native of Granite City, will become NATO and U. S. Commander in Europe. He will replace Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, who has been Supreme Allied Commander in Europe since 1963.

The White House announcement said that the shift in command was made with the consent of the Defense Planning Committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, which met Wednesday in Brussels, Belgium.

GEN. GOODPASTER

He was unanimously adopted a resolution appointing Gen. Goodpaster to the post.

The tall, gray-haired Granite Cityman was appointed last July as deputy commander of U. S. Forces in Vietnam. He was re-elected from Vietnam in December, at Nixon's request, to serve as his adviser on National Security Council procedures and military policy questions during the pre-inaugural transition period.

McKendree Graduate

The 54-year-old Goodpaster was graduated from Granite City high school and attended McKendree College, Lebanon, from 1931 to 1933 when he was appointed to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. He was graduated from West Point in 1939 and entered the Army Corps of Engineers with assignment in Panama.

Thirty years of distinguished military service has taken him to various assignments in the U. S. and Europe. He was promoted to major general in 1960 as staff secretary to two presidents and other significant military planning and staff positions.

Gen. Goodpaster will be returning to Europe to head an organization he helped create nearly 20 years ago. During the early 1960s, the staff officer became close to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and when Eisenhower left NATO to become president, Gen. Goodpaster was appointed presidential staff secretary, a post he held for nearly seven years.

During his tenure at the White House, Gen. Goodpaster became acquainted with Richard Nixon, then vice-president, in the same secretarial capacity for President John F. Kennedy.

Drainage Now—Not Later—Is Emergency Need

A program of expansion and improvement of drainage facilities in the Nameoki township-Granite City area must be initiated immediately — without waiting for a Hillside Drainage project — if the area is to avert disastrous flooding in the next heavy rainfall, it was asserted here today.

The warning came from William "Mike" Ebersoldt, Madison county member of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district, following inspection of levee district drainage ditches, canals and outlets into Horse-shoe Lake, the only major receiving basin for drainage from tributaries throughout the area.

Ebersoldt said that he and Ernest Brown, superintendent of levee district operations in Madison county, also toured areas in which flooding has occurred recently even during moderate rainfalls in the New Haven, Dobrey Slough, Elm Slough, Long Lake and Pontoon Beach sections.

A "Powder Keg" "We came to the conclusion that we're sitting on a powder keg so far as the threat of flooding is concerned," Ebersoldt said. "If we get a prolonged or heavy rainfall, most of this area is in for trouble, and I don't think it will take too heavy of a rain to cause it."

Ebersoldt made the conditions known as a group of residents from the New Haven subdivision (Angela drive) and from the Breckenridge - Center-Garden lane area of Nameoki township met to discuss a meeting of the Nameoki town board tomorrow night in an effort to establish responsibility for solving mounting drainage problems that in recent months have flooded streets and roadways and resulted in damage to homes in the area.

A delegation of about 15 residents along the 2000 and 2700 blocks of Angela drive is expected to attend the town board meeting to seek aid in correcting conditions that are causing extensive damage to homes by seepage that is reported in some instances to be threatening collapse of basement walls. Homes in the Angela drive area are in the $25,000 to $30,000 class.

Delegation to Attend

That delegation will be joined by area residents said, by a delegation, also of about 15 residents, from the area in the vicinity of Breckenridge lane, Center street and Garden lane where even moderate rainfall has created large ponding areas that overflow streets, roadways and yards. Following the last heavy period of rain late on January, when nearly two inches of rain fell over a four-day period, many blocks of roadway were under water, and water still is standing in some sections. Only 1.58 inches of rain fell through out the entire month of February.

Angela drive residents say their homes are being seriously damaged by water running into their basements as seepage, which in some instances bubbles up through the floors around steel support posts. Residents show basements where water also bubbles in a steady stream around the edge of the floors where they join the walls.

Ebersold said it is these conditions for which there must be immediate solution through improvement of drainage channels that will carry away surface water after rainfall.

Angela drive area is divided by Dobrey slough which runs under the roadway in the 2800 block through two 36-inch culverts.

Culverts Obstructed

The slough drains to the east of Angela drive, but it has been blocked by obstructed culverts under a private road.

Clearance of these culverts permitting drainage of the slough is one of the main points at issue before the town board.

Ebersold suggested the possibility of a mass meeting of homeowners, town officials, levee district officials and all other concerned parties to discuss a program for improving drainage facilities.

"As far as I am concerned, the levee board, as such, can be left out of this thing entirely, although we surely will help as much as we can," Ebersold said.

Need Improvement Now

"But that is beside the point right at the moment. The chief concern now is to organize a program with everybody behind it so that the usual heavy rains this spring won't cause any serious flooding of the Nameoki and North Granite areas," he added.

Ebersold said he plans to attend the town board meeting Friday night and hopes to offer whatever help the levee district can give.

"We (the levee board) don't have the money to undertake major overall drainage project now, but I plan on going to Price (Cong. Melvin Price) and to Representative Smith (House Speaker Ralph T. Smith of Alton) to determine if some emergency funds might be available for such a situation as this," Ebersold said.

He said he also plans to confer with Rep. Smith concerning plans for Horseshoe Lake if a bill introduced by Rep. Smith to buy Horseshoe Lake for a state park eventually is approved.

Ebersold said that in his opinion Horseshoe Lake is the key to the drainage problem of the entire area.

The lake, he explained, serves as the major drainage basin in the entire area. Drainage waters from Nameoki area ditch, into which the flow from Granite City's new stormwater sewer system will be channeled, from Long Lake and from Elm slough, as well as several other tributaries, drain into the lake.

Two Drainage Points

At high level the lake drains into the Cahokia Creek diversion channel through a set of locks just east of route 111, and through two 36-inch culverts at a point about a mile west of Route 111.

Ebersold said these outlets and Cahokia channel itself are in need of dredging and would be overloaded if Horseshoe Lake became bankfull in a severe storm period.

Long Lake has been at a high level for many months and is therefore unable to accommodate what drainage there is of several of the bad Nameoki township low areas.

In his recent inspection tour, the levee board member said, he and Brown noted particularly that the ground appears saturated with water and that water was running in Nameoki ditch from its point of origin near Pontoon road solely from seepage, since there has been no notable rainfall for six weeks.

Windshield Damaged

The windshield of his 1953 model station wagon was shattered by three holes, apparently a shot from an air rifle, Ray Syniski, 833 Greenwood street, Madison, reported to police Monday afternoon.

Harris Heads Study of Education Efficiency

William L. Harris, president of Wagner Seven-Up Bottling Co., and a Granite City school board member in 1966 and 1967, was chosen Monday night as chairman of the Citizens' Study Group for Educational Efficiency.

The new group, a committee of 20, was created by the Granite City school district. It conferred Monday evening with school board members and held its first meeting.

Dr. E. W. Walton, board president, welcomed the citizens to the board session and outlined their mission as "in-depth studies of operational procedures, methods and concepts with an aim toward taking advantage of the maximum potential for efficiency while maintaining educational quality and meeting the additional requirements and demands of society and the economy of the future."

The committee is to submit recommendations within a year. Pledge Full Cooperation. Board members assured the committee of full cooperation by the school system, including making available to it the findings of related studies carried out here and elsewhere in the area.

Dr. Walton said the scheduled study is expected to be very helpful to the school district. He voiced appreciation to the committee members for their willingness to participate.

Treasurer George E. Moore sr. noted that the committee is empowered to act on its own to add more people to serve on subcommittees if needed.

The 20 include nine school employees from the Granite City system and Miss Leigh Heller of the system and 11 residents who are not a part of the school district staff.

School Board Member L. Monroe Worthen said that the staff, facilities, research and resource materials will be made available to the committee.

While seeking proposals for revision of existing procedures to meet changing needs and to achieve greater efficiency, the board and Supt. Bob J. Davis left the committee free to consider a wide field in selecting its specific studies and objectives.

Irregularity at Poll In Madison is Refuted

A complaint of alleged possible irregularities in the township Precinct No. 9 polling place in Madison Tuesday morning during the state senatorial primary election was made by Ronald Gushelf, a candidate for Fourth Ward alderman in Madison. His claims were refuted.

He claimed that Mrs. Christ Costoff, wife of the incumbent aldermanic candidate for the Fourth Ward who is Madison county Democratic chairlady, and Mrs. Mike Sikora, wife of the other Fourth Ward alderman, were seated at a table among seven women in the voting area at Trinity hall, 1247 Madison avenue.

Gushelf said that Costoff and Sikora, a city official, also were in the building. Gushelf, who said he entered the polling place to cast a ballot, asked the identity of the head judge but was told that all were equal judges. He said he did not ask other questions.

6-Month Sentence for Washington Park Man

Billie Robinson, 41, of Washington Park, was sentenced to six months on the state prison farm at Vandalia Wednesday afternoon in Granite City court by Magistrate Thomas Welch after pleading guilty to charges of unlawful use of a weapon, discharging firearms and illegal transportation of liquor.

He was arrested at 8:10 p.m. Tuesday on the charges after police received two trouble calls at the home of Murle Baugh, 1331 Edwardsville road.

The first report came at 6:40 p.m. on the report of someone shooting a gun. Baugh told police that Robinson had forced him at gunpoint to take a ride with him in the Robinson auto.

He said Robinson later fired one shot from a .38 caliber house pistol into the living room wall. Baugh said he ran to the home of a neighbor to call police, but Robinson was gone when officers arrived.

Robinson was arrested on the second trouble call.

Electric Heat Awards Given

The new "heat wave" is electric, over 100 Madison county buildings were told at a dinner Tuesday evening at the Round Table at which R. A. Blakeney, Illinois Power Co. vice-president, presented awards.

Recipients included the Jim Green Construction Co., which was cited for equipping 100 apartments with electric heat during 1968 and planning similar installations for 50 apartments to be built in 1969.

Carl E. Mathias, manager of the Granite City service area of Illinois Power, spoke on the future of electric furnaces. Talks on the past and present were given by James Woods and Jerry Hagler, and Norman Hall served as toastmaster.

The Wood River, Edwardsville and Collinsville districts as well as the Quad-Cities were included in the gathering.

Illinois Power staff members were attired as a "heat squad" to dramatize the role of electric heat in attracting both young and older buyers and renters.

Ways in which electric cooling can be incorporated in construction plans also were outlined.

Of 331 homes and 254 apartments built in the service area in 1968, 17 homes and 182 apartments had electric heat, about matching the national average of 26%, Mathias said.

Advantages cited were cleanliness, uniform temperature, absence of drafts, individual room controls and economical installation and operation.

Conversion of existing housing to electric heat, usually utilizing insulation improvements, also is gaining in momentum, it was noted.

Reading Center for Children with Problems

Visual perceptual difficulties, neurological factors, environmental abnormalities, ineffective teaching, have been pinpointed as a few of the reasons why a child has a reading problem.

Special facilities at SIU-SW campus, are available to prepare graduate students, for teaching and working with students with reading problems.

Known simply as the "Reading Center," students working on graduate degrees get practical experience there in tutoring children with reading problems. More importantly, according to David Bear, director of the center, graduate students are learning to diagnose why a reading problem is experienced by a child.

For the 30 youngsters now being helped, ranging in age from 8 to 17 there is a one-to-one relationship with the SIU student. In addition to tutoring the graduate student attends a seminar one night per week.

Process at Center
At the Center, first comes a series of tests recording such things as eye movements, hearing, current reading ability, and individual conferences with the student, parent and the child's teacher to determine the causes of reading difficulty.

"During the public school year the youngsters are seen one and one-half hours on Saturday. Of course, it would be better for the child if we could work with him everyday as we do in the summer," Bear remarked.

"Regrettably, the Center can only work with 30 youngsters," he said, "that is the number of reading specialists we are now training. It's almost always a one-to-one ratio. Of course, we continually have to remind ourselves that our first job is to train reading specialists."

"Statistics indicate that from 10 to 15% of all children in school have some type of reading problems," Bear said. "We don't pay enough attention to preventing problems, consequently the need for the reading specialists."

"When we think the child has enough independence as a reader, we dismiss him. If we get him over the hurdle we notify his classroom teacher of what his progress has been. Then we bring in another youngster to help," Bear says, as there is always a waiting list.

"If we find a student who has problems that we are not equipped to handle, we make referrals for proper treatment," he explained.

Tools used in the Reading Center, include numerous diagnostic and instructional materials and devices as well as hundreds of books and exercises to use in tutoring the reader. Instruction for each child is individualized, according to his needs.

Students who are taking the courses in reading are required to take a three quarter sequence of courses which include practical experience in the Center.

"With enough reading specialists in the schools, we'll make a dent into the number of children with reading problems," Bear said.

Club Told of Honduras Project by Rotarian

The Rotary Volunteer program in Honduras was the subject of a talk and photographic slides at yesterday's Madison Rotary luncheon by Ernest Tosovsky sr. of the Home Nursery firm. The Edwardsville resident was governor of Rotary District 646 for the 1968-69 year.

Tosovsky showed scenes from an area of Central America in which he has spent a year teaching techniques of agriculture and horticulture.

Rotary International has authorized him to continue such efforts for the next five years, and he plans to fly to Honduras on an average of once a month while maintaining his residence in Madison county, he related.

Homes there have walls of mud, bamboo stalks or palm leaves, the club was told.

The speaker said vegetation grows easily in the semi-tropical climate and that planting can take place at any time of the year other than the rainy season. He was introduced by Lawrence Falkes, program chairman.

President-elect Richard Suss presided and Alex Schoenhorst and Lewis Waggoner were honored on their birthdays.

Plans were made to be represented at joint service club Monday Thursday services at 12:10 p.m. April 3 at the Granite City First United Presbyterian Church, where Rev. Alfred Buls of University City, former pastor of Holy Lutheran Church, will speak.

The annual Rotary installation dinner was set for June 14.

Briggs

only about a year, however, since the term expires next year subject to renomination and re-election in the 1970 elections.

Tuesday's primary election, as well as the April 29 balloting, were scheduled as special elections by former Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro before he left office in early January. The elections will cost a total of $75,000, but the state will pick up the bill since it is a state rather than a county election.

Briggs received heavy majorities in Venice and Nameoki township, and in all four townships of the Quad-Cities defeated Riddleberger by two to one. Briggs polled 2424 votes in the Quad-City area, compared to 733 for Riddleberger. Drenovac received 187 Quad-City votes and Ford polled 144. Ottwein received 484 votes in the Quad-Cities to 283 for Riddleberger. Mallett, who was not in the running, polled 29.

Voting was extremely light, as had been anticipated because of the lack of issues and moderate campaign efforts by the candidates.

11,296 Votes Cast

In the ten townships of the district, an unofficial total vote of 11,296, made up of 660 Democratic ballots and 4638 Republican ballots, was tallied after the polls closed. These figures do not include spoiled ballots.

Of this total, 3680 Democratic ballots, or more than half of the total Democratic vote in the entire district, were cast in the Quad-City area. In contrast, Quad-City voters cast only 327 Republican ballots, or only 15% of the total GOP vote.

The 3rd Senatorial District, in addition to Quad-City, includes Nameoki, Chouteau and Venice townships, including Edwardsville, Alton, Wood River, Godfrey, Jarvis and Pin Oak townships. These townships include 144 of the county's 186 precincts.

Briggs' total was seven-to-one over Riddleberger in the seven precincts of his home area, Nameoki township (804 to 123), while in Venice Briggs won four-to-one over Riddleberger (872 to 223). Briggs defeated Riddleberger 95-to-one in Chouteau township (183 to 28), but his lead over his nearest opponent was not as heavy in the 32 precincts of Granite City township (383 to 39).

3-to-1 Majority

Nevertheless, Briggs came out of the Quad-City area a three-to-one leader—2424 to 733 for Riddleberger. In the more predominantly Republican precincts of the outer county areas of the district, Riddleberger had no opportunity to catch up with this lead.

In both Venice and Nameoki township, lopsided Democratic votes were cast, in virtually every precinct.

In precinct 8 of Venice township, the GOP polled 166 of the Democratic votes, while the one GOP ballot was cast for Ottwein. That a particular precinct reported the second heaviest total vote of any in the township, topping the list was Venice Precinct 9 with a total

IRS Income Tax Aid on Mondays

Assistance in completing 1968 income tax forms is available each Monday at the city hall in Granite City.

Agents of the Internal Revenue Service are in offices on the third floor of the city hall building, 20th street and d Niedringhaus avenue.

The Monday hours are from 9 a.m. until noon and from 1 to 4 p.m. The agents' final visit will be April 14.

Briggs received heavy majorities in Venice and Nameoki township, and in all four townships of the Quad-Cities defeated Riddleberger by two to one. Briggs polled 2424 votes in the Quad-City area, compared to 733 for Riddleberger.

Drenovac received 187 Quad-City votes and Ford polled 144. Ottwein received 484 votes in the Quad-Cities to 283 for Riddleberger. Mallett, who was not in the running, polled 29.

Voting was extremely light, as had been anticipated because of the lack of issues and moderate campaign efforts by the candidates.

Different Voting Pattern

Granite City voting showed a slightly different pattern. Two Granite City precincts, Nos. 16 and 17, in fact, reported more Republican than Democratic ballots, the only two precincts of that kind in the 54 precincts of the Quad-City area. Few Granite City precincts reported total votes as heavy as those cast in Nameoki and Venice townships. In most instances, the number of Democratic ballots were not nearly as lopsided as they were in other parts of the area.

The balloting in Granite City, which totaled 1131 Democratic ballots and 268 GOP ballots, gave Briggs 563 to 359 for Riddleberger. Ford received 58 Granite City votes, while Drenovac polled 48. Simmons, who was not in the running, received 63 votes in Granite City.

Granite City Republican voters gave Ottwein only a slightly better tally than Rogers. Ottwein received 256 Granite City votes to 227 for Rogers. Mallett, despite his withdrawal, received 12.

Nameoki Returns

In the seven precincts of Nameoki township, Briggs received 804 of the 984 Democratic votes that were cast. Riddleberger received 123, Ford 21 and Drenovac 12. On the Republican side in Nameoki, only 109 GOP ballots were cast with 76 going to Ottwein, 24 to Rogers and nine to Mallett.

Chouteau township cast 302 Democratic ballots and 118 Republican ballots in its four precincts. Briggs polled 165 of the Democratic vote, while Riddleberger tallied 23, Drenovac 63 and Ford 31.

Totals in the 11 precincts of Venice township showed a total Democratic vote of 1263, with the largest of any township in the Quad-Cities, and a Republican vote of 47, the smallest GOP vote of any township in the district.

Briggs received 872 of the Democratic votes, while the one GOP ballot was cast for Ottwein. That a particular precinct reported the second heaviest total vote of any in the township, topping the list was Venice Precinct 9 with a total

Don Rains Joins Varsity As Cougars Head South

Led by Coach Roy E. Lee, the SIU-SW 18-player baseball squad which will travel south Sunday, going to Florida for a nine-game spring training schedule.

The regular season will open at home March 28 with a doubleheader against Minnesota's Winona State, a perennial power in the nation's small college baseball ranks.

Lee, a former major league pitcher, has picked a six-man hurling staff headed by two left-handers: Granite City's Bruce Thompson, a senior, and Edwardsville's Don Poo, a sophomore.

A pair of juniors and two freshmen round out the pitching staff. The juniors are Edwardsville's Maurice "Sandy" Sanderson and St. Louis University high's Rick Wilber, son of the former major-leaguer, Del Wilber.

The two freshman hurlers are Granite City's Don Rains, and a Marion, Ill., standout, Steve Malone.

26-2 Record at GCHS
Rains compiled a sensational 26-2 record for Granite City high school in three years' play and finished with an almost unbelievably low 1.01 earned-run average. The Cardinals' Bob Gibson, in his record-breaking 1968 season, was 1.59.

For the Florida trip, Lee has picked four catchers, headed by Belleville's Bob Reichert, senior letterman and team captain. The other receivers are sophomore John Oltman, Worden, and freshmen Mike Alaria, Edwardsville, and Willis Bundy, Maymeier.

A former Roxana high star, Gary Collins, a senior and last year's most valuable player, will be back at first base. Another letterman, Edwardsville's Alan Weber, a sophomore, will be at second base. A freshman, Jack Forstall of St. Louis' McBride high, will back up Weber at second base.

Another Roxana product, Mike Scroggins, sophomore and letterman, will be at third base for the Cougars. He was a star

Two GC Girls Qualify For State Swim Meet

Two Granite City girls qualified for the YMCA State Swim Championships, scheduled for March 29 at Monmouth College, Warren county, Ill., by achieving first or second place victory in one or more qualifying times in the recent YMCA district swim competition.

Among several hundred youthful swimmers from south-central Illinois who competed at the district event, held in the new YMCA in Jacksonville, was Ann Bickhaus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bickhaus, 2028 Manley avenue.

Ann, a Granite City high school sophomore, captured second place wins in the 100-yard butterfly and 200-yard individual medley, and a first place victory as a member of a medley relay squad.

Also competing was Karen Reisinger, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reisinger, 2242 State street, who scored second place in the 50-yard breaststroke event for 11-and-12-year-olds; fourth place in the 100-yard individual medley and second place on a medley relay team.

Both local girls swim with the East St. Louis YMCA colors, with their squad accumulating sufficient overall points to take the second place team championship in the district contest.

Swimmers from a fourth-ranked first place. Two other Granite City swimmers competing were Roseanne Baggett, who received a fourth-place ribbon in the 25-yard freestyle for eight years and under, and Kathleen Baggett, eighth place in the 50-yard butterfly, 9-10 division. They are the daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Gerard M. Baggett, 2650 Edison avenue.

Three girls representing the Tri-Cities YMCA were Gail Schenke, (11-12) and Paula Worthen, (10 and under), both from Granite City, and Mary Braun, (15-17), from Edwardsville. None qualified for the state finals.

The Bickhaus girl competed Sunday evening in the Ozark AAU Senior Championships at Berkeley high school, St. Louis, where she captured second place in the 200-yard butterfly event and fifth place in 100-yard freestyle.

Several local youths will swim for YMCA District honors at the Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, this Saturday, with the boys' state competition slated for Saturday, April 12.

Freeman vs. Hagan in Pro Cage Tilt Tonight

There will be a twin homecoming for two well-known area basketball players tonight at 8 o'clock at the St. Louis Arena when the Dallas Chaplains play the Miami Floridians in the second American Basketball Association contest.

Curt Hagan, Dallas's player-coach, will make his first St. Louis appearance since retiring from the Hawks three years ago. Hagan led his team to the finals of the ABA East Division playoffs last year, while playing sparingly in the process. He scored 1019 points in 56 games last season.

The other homecoming attraction is Madison's Don Freeman, a product of MHS and the University of Illinois. On Feb. 13 in the first ABA game here against Minnesota, he posted a Miami team scoring record of 44 points in leading his team to a 131-126 victory. The Floridians have won 17 of their last 19 at home and since the St. Louis contest, show a 7-5 mark.

They have been in first place from that time until March 10, when they were defeated by Indiana in Indianapolis. Freeman's average this year is 22 points a game and in the Floridian's last two games he scored a total of 80 points.

Dallas's top scorer is John Bessley, who was voted the most valuable player in the ABA's all-star game this year. He is averaging 20 points a game and has scored 118 points a game and their opponents in 60 games. The Chaplains, as a team, are averaging 109 points a game and their opponents are averaging one point more.

There will be a 6:30 p.m. preliminary, featuring the Nashville Wheelcats and the St. Louis Rolling Rams in a wheelchair basketball game. The Wheelcats are undefeated in 15 games this season and placed third in the U.S. in the national wheelchair tournament last season. The Rolling Rams are three-time national champions.

Tickets are $4 for box seats and parquets, $3 for the arena circle and $2 for general admission.

Fishing Fever Hits

Fishing fever has hit many in the county even though the weather refuses to cooperate. I saw fishermen hugging bonfires this past weekend but still seemingly enjoying it. I have not had any good reports except excellent bullhead fishing at Carlyle Lake on the southeast corner and no doubt other areas as well. I have received a number of phone calls about Kincaid Lake about 15 miles southeast of Springfield. This is another so called hot water lake, like Coffeen but a little newer. Boats may be used but are limited to up to ten horsepower. The lake covers about 2000 acres and was a bass sport last year. It will soon have ramps and other facilities. Speaking of fish, I had an interesting time at my own lake this year.

We have a small spit pond at the head of the lake that is less than three feet deep and barely 20 feet across. Last fall when we were cleaning the lake we found a very large carp that I did not know was in the lake. Just for fun, we threw it in the small pond and forgot it. This winter the pond froze over four inches deep. The other day when it was very clear, I happened to look close and there was the big carp still happily swimming away in the little pond. Winter certainly had no effect on him.

Woodland Plans
Game Biologist Paul Moore inspected my woodlot project on Silver Creek recently and came up with some good plans. There is quite a large shoreline around the lake that is not wooded but somewhat grown up. He suggested a clear this year and he is going to draw up the complete wildlife planting plan that will include as much of the recommended plantings that we can get in. It will be a fine demonstration plot even though it is small.

Some of the brush will be used to make piles for game around the perimeter of the woods next to the open fields. Paul reminded me that most upland game like the border of a field or woods rather than staying too deep in the timber or too far out in a field.

Even though there is plenty of crop ground in the area, we also will put in a few rows of grain near the lake just to draw some of the game to it. It always makes me a little sad and a little mad to see Silver Creek. Even after the flush of high water, the bright orange of the coal mine pollution is still evident. I don't suppose it ever clears up completely.

Hunting Violations
Police have had several arrests and violations. One for after season rabbit hunting by some Missouri hunters and one for carrying a gun while training on crop grounds after season. Remember, you can run your dogs until ten days before the season starts next November but for no reason can you have a firearm with you.

With the increase in fur price increasing the season kill, hunters cannot afford to have one killed during the raising season if they want coon to run in the future. It's like biting your own hand to hurt your own sport!

GC 6th Among All High Schools in All-Time State Wrestling Prowess

When one mentions Pittsburgh, the first thing that comes to many minds is the Pirates. When one mentions Granite City to a sports fan, one of the first things that he thinks of is wrestling.

With all the sports that GCHS has, it is mostly known in athletic circles for its wrestling. The team has been steadily in ability as the campaign progressed.

Unbeaten in Dual Meets
How much better a season can be expected than going undefeated (16-0) in dual meets and winning six tournaments - Savannah, Hazelwood, GCHS holiday, Southwestern Conference district and sectional?

In the other two tournaments the Warriors entered, they were nosed out 87-85 at Northwest and were fourth at Ritzen out of 14 teams entered.

The Warriors won the conference championship for the 12th straight year. This was the first year that a league tournament was replacing round robin competition.

It was the 12th district won by the Warriors to go with sectional titles. Districts at one time were unnecessary because fewer schools had team titles.

Establish State Record
GCHS won its 10th consecutive sectional, bettering the state record of 15 that the Warriors had tied last year.

The local squad also has the best record in the state for total sectional championships. The '68-69 edition of the Warriors placed 14th in the state tournament. The team scored for the 31st time in the 32 years of state tournament history, improving this record by another year.

As the team the Warriors scored 547 points in dual meets and 682 points in tournaments for a total of 1229; 187 points were scored against them in dual meets.

Record Number of Foes
Warrior Coach William Schmitt says, "This is the first time since 1955 that we have been undefeated in dual meets and the first time in the school's history that we have wrestled 16 different schools."

The Warriors also had the honor of being voted the number one team in this region by the coaches.

GCHS, a former state champion team, has produced a number of individual Illinois champions.

Soccer Tourney Games Sunday for 2 Squads
Two Granite City soccer teams will be in action in the St. Louis Invitational Khourey League tournament Sunday.

Granite City will play a 2 p.m. game in the winners' bracket at Cardonfield field in the Juvenile division. Northwest Rental will play a 2 p.m. match in the losers' bracket at Forest Park No. Four in the Atom division.

Meet Tues. On Ice Hockey Competition

It is now definite that ice hockey will be a part of the program at the Wilson Park ice rink next year. On Tuesday, March 18, a meeting of all parents is being held at the park recreation center starting at 7 p.m. Bill Hodge, founder of the Granite City Amateur Hockey Association, reports that the main purpose of the meeting will be to give an outline of how much money will be involved for league play and to elect officers of the association. At present, the association is interested mainly in signing boys aged 10 and 11. It may branch into an older division at a later date. Those interested may contact Hodge at 877-0665.

Port, Bi-State Agencies Plan Joint Meeting

A joint meeting of the Bi-State Development Agency board of directors and the Tri-City Regional Port Authority will be held April 2 for a general discussion of problems and operations in the Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area. It was announced during a regular meeting of the Port Authority board Monday night.

The meeting will be held at Sunset Hill Holiday Inn, according to Carl Ranft, manager of the Port district. Ranft said no particular issues are scheduled for discussion except "a meeting of minds" on area-wide operations that involve the two agencies.

Ranft informed the Port board in Monday's meeting that an area of land owned by the district between Rock road and North street, has been cleaned of trash and refuse and new warning signs have been posted. Ranft said the cleanup work cost $360. The area has been used as a dumping ground. He said new notices warn violators that they will be prosecuted.

The board also received a report on a meeting between Harold Fischer, chairman of the Port Authority board, Ranft and Port Atty. Randall Olson, with Ray C. Dickerson, newly appointed director of the Illinois State Department of Business and Economic Development. Ranft said the meeting was an informative session in which the Port district group outlined its programs to acquire the new director with the district's operations.

Members of the Port board also confirmed appointment of Ranft by the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce to a newly organized Industrial Development committee.

Vets Released In 1955 Still May be Eligible

Veterans discharged after Jan. 31, 1955, today were urged by the Veterans Administration to check with their nearest VA office to see if they are eligible to join the growing number of veterans going back to school under the GI bill.

The closest office is in East St. Louis at 650 Missouri avenue.

Individuals who received benefits from the VA to attend college fell off to less than 44,000 in 1966, when the Korean War GI bill was dying out, but VA officials are now looking ahead to having between 600,000 and 700,000 enrollees.

College level trainees jumped from the '66 low of 45,468 to 377,171 in 1967 and 456,247 in 1968, largely because of the Post Korean GI bill. It is expected that enrollment for the current fiscal year will top 600,000—the highest total since 1955—and approach 700,000 in 1970.

To be eligible under the GI bill veterans must have at least 181 consecutive days of active military service with part of that time after January 1955.

Military personnel with at least two years of continuous service are also eligible to attend college under the GI bill.

Other VA programs provide college-level benefits to wives, widows and children of totally and permanently disabled veterans and certain deceased veterans.

Under a 1967 amendment to the Post Korean GI bill, veterans are entitled to full benefits to complete high school ($130 a month for a full-time single student) without losing any college eligibility.

The VA said that veterans and others can get full information at any of the nation's 21 Veterans Assistance Centers as well as from any VA office.

Lukemia Guild Seeks Fund Drive Workers

Volunteers are being sought for the Leukemia Guild's annual door-to-door fund-raising campaign May 16-19. A telephone solicitation is being carried on throughout the two-state metropolitan area to recruit 15,000 volunteers who will call on their neighbors in the residential canvass.

The annual drive is the major source of income for the non-profit, bi-state association, and enables the work of the organization to continue, it was explained.

The Guild serves victims of leukemia from the two-state area, providing free medicine, food, transportation, equipment and counseling to the afflicted and their families. It is the only local organization offering this aid.

Speakers are available to address groups wishing additional information about leukemia or the Guild.

Anyone wishing to volunteer for the residential solicitation, May 16-19 may call or write Mrs. Dorothy Ross at the Leukemia Guild office, 1612 Big Bend Blvd., St. Louis, 63117, Mission 4-3633. Contributions also may be sent directly to the Guild office.

PTA Hears Band, Scouts, Detective

The March meeting of the Webster PTA, featuring a variety program, attracted about 100 people Monday. They were entertained with selections by band students, a Girl Scout program and a talk by Detective Sgt. Joe Nemeth.

Representatives from all Webster Brownie and Girl Scout troops opened the program with a flag ceremony, with Karen Lee of Cadette Troop 231 as caller. Principal Clyde Lee offered the PTA prayer.

The president, Mrs. Mae Lee, introduced Mrs. Mary Davis, band director, who led a musical program by students who were ribbon winners in a county band contest.

A flute trio, Karen Bellingier of Emerson school and Linda Sumpter and Karol Lee, entertained with "Star of the East" and Linda played "Gypsy Love." The trio received a second place ribbon. A first-place winner, Mike Vidon, played a trumpet solo, "A Song for Christopher," and Darrel Cook offered a trumpet solo, "Fan-dango."

The attendance banner was won by Miss Dorothy Hopkins' fourth grade class. A nominating committee was formed consisting of Mrs. Annette Scrum, Lee and Jane Heli.

Mrs. Lee announced that the school picnic is scheduled for May 15 at Wilson Park. Mrs. Alma Buente, Mrs. Carol DePew and Mrs. Carmen Grider were appointed to arrange the annual event, and it was voted to give each student five free tickets.

Also approved was a party for the school patrols under the direction of Louis Mehelec, sixth grade teacher.

The unit discussed purchase of something useful for the school and Mrs. Jo Ross, chairman, and Mrs. Janet Wilson and Mrs. Scrum will head a study committee for the purchase.

Mrs. Ross introduced Sgt. Nemeth, who spoke on the "breathalyzer," a device for measuring alcohol in the breath. He noted that a number of Illinois state troopers are presently enrolled in a special training school to learn operation of the device.

He urged passage of a bill on "implied consent" to help reduce the state's drinking-and-driving problems.

The sergeant spoke on juvenile crime rates and said that such rates are increasing four times more rapidly than the population nationally. Compared to other cities of the same population, Granite City rates are considerably lower, he noted.

In observance of Girl Scout Week, Brownie Troop 198, led by Mrs. Betty Van Gilder and Mrs. Peggy Jameson, and Troop 889, led by Mrs. Valde Schorfielde and Mrs. Anita Moody, enacted and sang several scout songs.

Junior Troop 28, led by Mrs. Jackie Watkins, who was unable to attend, read Red Skelton's version of the pledge of allegiance under the direction of Miss Phyllis Stotz, troop committee member.

Troop 704, with its leaders, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Shirley Tervasi, repeated the ten scout laws and Mrs. Tervasi explained the formal opening and closing of a troop meeting. The scouts sang "Taps" in unison, standing in a friendship circle.

Two sheet cakes decorated in the scout colors of green and yellow and Brownie colors of brown and yellow, accented with the trefoil emblem, were served along with a beverage by the fourth grade room mothers.

City's Meter Income Well Behind That of Last Year

Parking meter fee and fine collections during February rose slightly over those of the previous month but still ran far behind revenue of the same period a year ago, according to a report by City Comptroller Robert Stevens.

Meter income last month totaled $382, of which $250 was in fees and $132 in fines. During January, total income was $308, made up of $250 fees and $58 fines.

In February 1968 fees amounted to $300 and fines totaled $104 as police intensified a drive against meter violators.

Collections for the two months this year total $646, down $188 below the two months total of $834 for January and February 1968, the report shows.

Parking meters operated 24 days during February, producing an average daily income of $131, compared to $118 for 26 days operation in January.

Parking meters during the last three years have meant income of more than $47,000 per year. Meter revenues showed steady annual gains for the five years prior to 1968, but last year amounted to $48,145, a slight drop below the 1967 income of $48,337.

Expand School Laborer Staff Temporarily

Addition of a laborer to the Granite City school district staff for a period of three months was authorized by the school board at a meeting Monday night.

During the three-month period, a determination will be made as to whether there is sufficient work to justify a permanent position.

The maintenance and repair staff includes three maintenance men, three carpenters, three painters, three transportation men and two laborers.

The board hired as a Coolidge junior high school language arts, social studies and English teacher Edward M. Morris, 1802 Spring avenue. He holds a bachelor degree from Central Methodist College in Missouri and began the teaching assignment Feb. 28.

Commend Athletes

It was voted to commend Robert Miller, a Granite City high school student who won 1968 state wrestling championship in his weight division.

The board also formally commended the district-wide physical education program and staff for progress in upgrading the effectiveness of activities and teams.

Wrestling and basketball squads at Granite City high school had outstanding seasons this winter, and junior high school athletes also had many achievements, Board Member Harold Davis noted.

Authorization was given for the Boy Scout council to distribute a career interest inventory to interested junior high school and senior high school boys.

Red Cross Youth Enrollment

The American Red Cross was authorized to conduct an annual youth enrollment this month.

It was noted that students are sent to a Red Cross training camp each summer and that local schools are supplied with Junior Red Cross and High School Red Cross magazines.

Supt. Bob J. Davis was instructed to develop a proposed policy on agency fund drives in schools. It will be considered at a later board session.

Latin Students will Compete in Contest

Three Latin students from Granite City senior high school will be competing in the 21st annual Illinois Latin contests, announced Miss Mildred Hfrig, Latin teacher at the high school.

The district contest will be conducted Saturday at Collinsville high school, and the winners will advance to state competition at the University of Illinois, Urbana, April 26.

Second year Latin students, Gerald Griffith, Kevin McIlroy and Steven Dorenghazi will be tested on Caesar.

The purpose of the test is to offer talented Latin students an opportunity to delve more deeply into the subject and to gain some public recognition for their proficiency. Pins will be awarded in each level of competition, Miss Hfrig explained.

Mary Lee, a GCHS student, was the winner of the state test in last year's contest while she was a sophomore student.

There will be about 200 students from the area entered on Saturday, with the upper 20% of the state competing.

Winners from Saturday's contest will be announced in two weeks.

Remodeling Projects

A new addition and complete remodeling of the kitchen at Amvets Post 51 Home, 5100 Lakeview drive, is under way, Joseph Wickham, Post 51 commander reported last evening, at a post meeting.

Estimated cost is $2500. Wickham said, and included will be new furnishings and equipment. The bar area has been refurbished within the past two months, he added.

Earl Smith, membership director, reported 1969 dues are now payable and he announced the names of three prospective members — Glenwood Corey, Norbert B. Oyer and Walter Ritchie — who were approved for membership.

"Amvet Family Day" will be observed Saturday, starting with a corned beef and cabbage supper at 5 p.m. in the post home, Wickham announced. He also said officials of Amvets Fifth Division will meet at the local post on Sunday, March 30. The post commander noted that a memorial park will be constructed at the front of the clubhouse adjacent to an area where 75mm cannon has been placed. The project is expected to be completed this spring.

Mayor Partney's Monthly Report

Duties of Elected City Officials Outlined

In his monthly report to the citizens of Granite City, released yesterday, Mayor Partney outlined the duties and responsibilities of elected city officials.

Text of his report follows:
"Citizens should know the duties of their elected officials. To the average citizen, city government is measured in terms of the service he receives. The mayor is elected by the people as their chief administrator. Being the chief administrator of the city government, the mayor's office is charged with the responsibility of initiating administrative policy, recommending and enforcing legislative policy."

Voting Restrictions
"The mayor, under aldermanic form of municipal government, is a member of the council and presides at the meetings. He has no vote however, except in case of a tie, or in case a measure has received the favorable vote of one-half the members of the council."

The members of the city council shall be elected and serve for a four-year term. The council shall be the legislative division of the city government and shall perform such duties and have such powers as may be authorized by state statute. All resolutions and motions which create any liability against a city, or which provide for the expenditure or appropriation of its money, or to sell any city property, or to all ordinances, passed by the city council shall be deposited with the city clerk. If the mayor approves of them, he shall sign them. Those of which he disapproves he shall return to the city council, with his written objections.

City Clerk Duties
"The city clerk shall attend all meetings of the corporate authorities and keep full record of its proceedings in the journal. In addition to the record of ordinances and other records which the clerk is required by statute to keep, he shall keep a register of all licenses and permits issued, and the payment thereon; a record showing all of the officers and regular employees of the city; and such other records as may be required by the council. The city clerk shall turn over all money received by him on behalf of the city to the city treasurer, promptly on receipt of the same; and with the money he shall give a statement as to the source thereof."

"The city treasurer is elected to a four-year term. The treasurer shall perform such duties as may be prescribed for him by statute or by ordinance. He shall receive all money paid to the city, either directly from the person paying it or from the hands of such other officer as may receive it, and he shall be authorized to pay out of the city funds any money on vouchers or orders properly signed by the city comptroller and the mayor. He shall deposit the city funds in such depositories as may be selected from time to time as is provided by law, and he shall keep the city money separate and distinct from his own and shall not intermingle his own money with it or make private or personal use of the city funds. The treasurer shall keep records showing all money received by him and shall keep a record showing at all times the financial status of the city."

Street Superintendent
"The superintendent of streets is elected for a four-year term and is charged with the duty of keeping the streets and alleys clean, free from obstructions and in good repair. He shall see that all street drains are free and unobstructed and shall perform such other duties as may be required by the city council. The superintendent of streets shall see that all sewers of the city are kept in good repair, free from obstructions and breaks, and shall make all necessary repairs to enforce the ordinances relating to sewers. The superintendent of streets shall report to the city council any ordinance violations with relation to the care or use of streets, alleys or sidewalks in the city, of which he may become cognizant."

"Each and every elected official should shoulder the responsibility of his office and each and every citizen in our community should become more active in the city, of which we may become cognizant. "I extend my welcome to all citizens to attend council meetings on the first, third, and fourth Mondays of each month to see your government in action."

Book Drive Under Way For GC School Libraries

The Granite City Chapter of the National Association for Gifted Children is conducting an intensive campaign during March to collect books. The collected books will be reviewed by librarians and teachers and used to help develop the libraries of the schools, especially those located at the new Grigsby junior high school.

Any type of book, paperback to professional, will be accepted. The condition of the book is not a factor. Books which are not suitable for school use will be donated to the organization which sends books to servicemen overseas.

Books may be delivered to the Board of Education offices at 20th and Adams streets. For pickup service or further information contact Mrs. Robert Blankenship, 2000 Pontoon road, 877-2510.

Reward for Info on Dog That Bit Girl, 4

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bevins, 3268 Kilnray drive, are offering a $50 reward for information concerning a dog resembling a German shepherd puppy that bit their daughter, Nancy, on Tuesday, March 4, in the vicinity of Palm street.

The reward is good only until Friday night, if the dog has not been located by that time the four-year-old child will have to begin the series of rabies shots.

Mrs. Bevins describes the dog as tan or brown wearing a collar and did not appear to be vicious, but was more inclined to be playful.

Anyone with information concerning the dog is requested to call the Bevins residence, 877-5589.

2 Fined on Charge of Unlawful Weapon Use

Two St. Louis men, one of whom was charged with attempting to pass a worthless check at the First National Bank in Madison, were fined in magistrate court Tuesday afternoon following their arrest in Venice. A woman who was accompanying the men was booked as a material witness but was released after the men were arraigned.

Madison police said they were informed by bank officials about 11:30 a.m. Tuesday that a car containing three occupants had just left the bank after one of the men attempted to cash a check believed to be worthless. Police were given a description of the car.

Venice police, also notified of the incident, sighted the car a few minutes later at Fourth street and Broadway, and overtook the trio at Third street and Broadway. A search of the two men revealed both were carrying illegal knives, authorities said.

The two men and the woman were turned over to Madison police who booked Raymond D. Gross, 36, of St. Louis, and Chester Williams, 25, also of St. Louis. Both were charged with unlawful use of a weapon and Williams also was charged with deceptive practices.

Upon arraignment, Williams was fined $200 and assessed $20 court costs. He was unable to pay the fine and was transferred to the county jail. Gross was fined $40 and $10 costs. He paid the fine and court costs and was released.

Airman Lomax, a Madison high school graduate, attended Southern Illinois University before enlisting.

Truck Hits Car Door
When Elva B. Lallent, 2314a State street, opened the left door of her auto at 23rd and State streets, it was struck by a tire of a passing tractor-trailer truck at 10:20 a.m. Tuesday. The truck driver, apparently unaware of the mishap, continued on his way.

County Cancer Crusade Kickoff Set March 27

The Madison county cancer society's fund raising dinner will be held March 27 at the Stratford Hotel in Alton, featuring Mrs. Marianne Campbell, director of community affairs for a Cincinnati broadcasting firm, as guest speaker. This year's county cancer crusade chairman is Robert J. Walters, a member of the society's executive board. Dr. David Friedman of Granite City is vice-president of the board, and other local members are Mrs. Harriet Horn, Dr. Felicia Koch, Mrs. Ann Pieper and Mrs. Beatrice Pile.

Stop Sign Charge

Eddie J. Fritz of Collinsville was charged with disobeying a stop sign at 27th street and Grand avenue Monday, after his auto collided with another vehicle operated by Miss Barbara L. Kerch, 2251 Edison avenue.

State Capitol NEWS

Tax Fraud Auditor Hired

State Revenue Director George E. Mahin has announced the hiring of an audit supervisor and 10 investigators to check for tax frauds. Edward F. Kane, 61, of Chicago, a veteran employee of the Internal Revenue Service, will supervise all department auditors "to ensure that the state gets all the money to which it is entitled," Mahin said. Kane formerly served in a similar position for the federal agency, supervising activities in eight midwestern states. Mahin said Kane "recovered millions of dollars and exposed large frauds," in that job. Warn of False 'Hybrid' Soybeans

Illinois grain farmers are warned to beware of the purchase of "hybrid" soybean seed. John W. Lewis, director of the Department of Agriculture, said no legal commercial product of this type is available. Lewis said his office and the state seed laboratory have received numerous inquiries concerning some recent offerings of soybean seed.

"It is in violation of the Illinois Seed Law," Lewis explained, "to offer soybean seed that is represented or suggested as being hybrid."

Soybean seeds represented as hybrids supposedly do not produce usable seed the second year. This is not the case, Director Lewis said. Seed is claimed to be hybrid produce as good a crop the second year as the first, the director said.

Racing Purges

The 1969 Illinois State Fair, Aug. 6-17, will offer purses to racing more than $35,000 in its harness racing program. Racing money and trophies are from the Agricultural Products Fund, the Fund for Illinois Sired Cows and starting fees paid by owners. A levy on wagering pari-mutuel racing in Illinois produces the funds.

Highlight of the seven-day race program is the Illinois State Fair Colt Stake races for two and three-year-old trotters and pacers.

Expenses Collings Set Gov. Richard P. Ogilvie has imposed individual ceilings on expenses of major departments to save $22 million through Sept. 30.

Department heads earlier had reported they could save $78 million from their current appropriations. The additional slash of $22 million was ordered in separate memos from the governor.

Further savings will be sought by a "cost reduction team" headed by Finance Director John W. McCarter Jr. Each department will be required to furnish him a narrative account of five examples of savings. The report is due immediately.

Gov. Ogilvie said Feb. 5 told the Legislature that 10 percent of the entire two-year appropriations for state departments will be saved during the next five months.

Highway Contracts Let

Contracts totaling $8,063,763 were awarded last week for construction and related work on the state's 1969 highway program.

Public Works Director William F. Cellini said monies expended on the road program are from user taxes and are required by law to be used only for the construction and maintenance of roads.

Awards included a $1,981,884 contract for 10.02 miles of early grading preparatory to

Speakers Series Ends

Next Week at Belleville

"The Four Dreams of Man" will be the subject of Dr. John H. Furbay's talk when he speaks at this season's final dinner meeting of the Speakers Series Program sponsored by the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows at Augustine's restaurant, Belleville, on Tuesday, at 7 p.m.

Dr. Furbay, who has for years directed the global education program of an airline firm on four continents, is internationally known as a lecturer, author, educator, diplomat and explorer. Known as one of America's most dynamic and inspirational interpreters of the changing world scene, he holds a Ph.D. from Yale and a Masters Degree from New York University. He also studied at the University of Chicago and the Sorbonne in Paris. Tickets for this program may be obtained by writing or calling the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, Belleville, Ill. 62223. ### CROP Campaign to be Led by Dr. Ottwein

Dr. Merrill Ottwein has been elected to serve as campaign director for the Madison county 1969 CROP campaign, it was announced this week at Edwardsville.

In making the announcement, Lee Rogers of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service at Edwardsville, said: "We are fortunate to obtain such a qualified man for his position. His recent experience working for a year with agriculture and the underprivileged in the Honduras gave him first hand knowledge of the benefits of CROP contributions in our person-to-person program of continuing aid, relief and self help in fighting world hunger."

Others named to the CROP board include Fred Engleke of Worden, vice-chairman; Rev. Arnold Bizer of Alhambra, secretary; Joseph Wetzel of Edwardsville, treasurer; Rev. Harvey Abernethy and Rev. Gene Ostendorf, promotion directors, and Rogers as publicity director.

The campaign for 1969 will be held during the last two weeks in September, rather than in November. The kickoff meeting is set for Sept. 10.

Landscaping Older Homes

Many times a handsome home seems lonely or isolated because the shrubs and trees have grown old. Architects and nurserymen use plants and planning to create and preserve beauty. They select plants for a specific use because of size, shape, color or combination of characteristics. But eventually most plants become over mature and need to be replaced.

Architects say 15 years. I feel some plantings will remain useful for 20 years if well designed and pruned. You can test this theory by visiting a 20-year-old subdivision and look over the landscaping.

Landscaping has three objectives: to beautify the home, not be a collection of interesting plants but to soften the shape of the home without hiding it; to be among trees, not concealed in a forest.

Landscaping should start with a new plan. The smaller the home grounds, the greater the need for proper planning. An architect, too, including a visit and analysis of use of your property will be similar to the price of a new refrigerator. The plan can then become a family project or offered to your local nurseryman.

Buying Plants by Mail

Large color advertisements of "brand new" and exciting flowers and plants are a strong temptation. It's fun to try out new plants but a person hates to get something he did not expect. One problem is the use of common names to describe these plants. Anyone can make up a new name for skunk cabbage, but only one committee of international experts can decide which is the scientific name.

When an advertisement uses an unfamiliar common name without mentioning the scientific name, you may be ordering a skunk cabbage when you want a chrysanthemum.

Send companies and florists specialties in a wide variety of flowers, vines and useful plants. Send company catalogues and good references when you are doing research on an advertisement. A phone call to your local florist will often confirm the identity and usefulness of the plant in question.

This research may give you some surprising information about price. When neither of these reliable groups of plantmen offer or recognize it, then transact cautiously.

When you can recognize the plant, compare the size of the plant with the size you would like to have. How does the plant stack up to the price? Is there any mention of guarantee?

When you compare all these things, you won't be disappointed when you buy.

Mysterious Pokedew

The common pokedew (PHYTOXILLAX) is a friend to many but a poisonous plant to others.

This common perennial appears in gardens, lawns and roadsides as a large leafy plant with purple stems. During the fall the spikely clusters of juicy purple berries nod invitingly.

A good deal of history is written about the pokedew. Early settlers used the leaves and plant parts as a medicinal plant. Many settlers and farm families learned the young green shoots could be used as a boiled vegetable provided the berries were removed. The berries are poisonous while the leaves and stems are safe. Many suspected the berries were poisonous while the leaves and stems are safe. Many suspected the berries were poisonous while the leaves and stems are safe.

Recent studies do agree the poisonous agent is in the roots. Hogs have been poisoned by rooting out and eating the roots. Medical concoctions of the root cause burning of the mouth, stomach cramps, vomiting and diarrhea.

Mrs. Anna Crane, 69, Dies at Highland

Mrs. Anna Crane, 69, of 513 Second street, Edwardsville, mother of Mrs. Birdie Marie Clayton of Granite City, died Monday at 12:30 p.m. at St. Joseph Hospital in Highland, where she had been taken earlier in the day.

Born in Prague, Czechoslovakia, she had made her home in Edwardsville for 51 years and previously had lived in Alton.

Mrs. Crane was a member of the Eden United Church of Christ and active in several civic organizations including the Order of Friendship Men, the Women of Moose 1561, of Edwardsville, Royal Neighbors, the Order of the Eastern Star, the Women's Guild of the church, and she was serving as president of the Order of Mothers 18 also of Edwardsville.

Her husband, William Crane, preceded her in death in 1966. Surviving are one son, Joseph Lee Crane, Sr., of Edwardsville; a daughter, Mrs. Clayton; one brother, William Crane, of Bica, Colombia; three sisters, Mrs. Joseph (Mary) Rozum, Edwardsville, Mrs. Fred (Agnes) Schurman, Collinsville, Mrs. Alvin (Antonia) Menz, Glen Crossing; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Dear Jackie:

How often should a carpet be cleaned and how often should you shampoo it?

CURIOUS,
Granite City

Dear Curious:

Same answer for both questions — as often as it needs it. Most women vacuum their carpeting every day to pick up dirt from daily traffic and to lift the nap. This is fine because it restores the carpet to its natural shape and removes the fine grit and dirt that cut and soil the carpet fibers. As for shampooing, there are several rules to follow:

Don't over shampoo it! Your carpet will last many years depending on the type and quality of the carpet you purchased. The expected "life" of your carpet includes shampooing, but if you over-do it, that life is shortened to some extent. Spot clean whenever possible.

Should you get a bad stain on your carpet or several stains—don't shampoo the entire carpet unless it needs it. Use a brand name carpet stain remover such as spot shot and save "carpet life."

Don't let it become too soiled: some man made fibers, such as nylon, wear so well that they can become "uncleanable" before they wear out! Carpet life is not excluded to wear only. Looks count! Should a carpet become so soiled that it's impossible to clean, the years of wear-life have been wasted. Simple rule for thumb—clean (shampoo) your carpet when it needs it. You can tell just by looking at it, and it won't hurt it.

Types of shampoo: for man-made fibers—nylon, etc.—use a "non-oil-base" shampoo. Man made fibers are made to last without restoring natural oils because there is no natural oils in them. Any strange additive can actually harm them.

Wool Carpet: use an oil base shampoo. This "will" restore the natural oils in the wool and add life to your carpet. The detergents in the other shampoos would remove the oils from the wool faster, and cut down its life.

The Shampoo Equipment: you can rent a shampoo machine for a dollar a day! Our professional equipment rents for seven dollars and fifty cents a day! You can buy a car for fifty dollars or three-thousand dollars. The choice, I leave to you.

Carpeting is beautiful in a home, but it needs proper care like any other floor covering. It's probably the most easy floor covering to care for—when you know how, and I hope we've helped you. We have professional carpet cleaning equipment—shampoos and spot cleaners that may add years of life to your carpet—give us a call at 931-4000 and we'll see if we can help you further.

WATCH FOR THE ATKINS FLOOR COVERING COMIC STRIP ON MONDAYS. IT WILL APPEAR MONDAY, MARCH 17, ON THE AMUSEMENT PAGE OF THE PRESS-RECORD.

If you have problems with floor covering, write to "DEAR JACKIE," c/o ATKINS FLOOR COVERING, 2780 Pontoon road, Granite City, Illinois.

Latest Jaunts by Sternberg Cover 16,000 Miles

Census Bureau Seeks Data on Households

Questions aimed at developing new information about the nation's households and families will be asked in this area as part of the Census Bureau's monthly Current Population Survey the week of March 16, Director Theodore F. Olson of the Bureau's regional office in Chicago announced today.

The March survey contains inquiries on the number of persons in families and in households, employment and unemployment and annual income from various sources. Information will also be obtained on the number of persons who moved during the last year. Answers to survey questions update information obtained by the Bureau at the time of the decennial census.

The monthly surveys are taken in scientifically selected samples of the U. S. population, and the same questions will be asked of all sample households. The identity of households to be questioned is kept confidential, and the facts obtained will be used only for statistical purposes.

Backs Out; Collides

As she was backing out of an angle parking space at 23rd street and Illinois avenue at 11 a.m. Monday, the auto of Margaret D. Keith of 2024 Alton avenue, Madison, collided with a northbound vehicle, operated by Leonard H. McMurtry of 2457 Illinois avenue.

Gene Sternberg will probably be the most widely traveled resident—for a twelve-month period—in the Quad-Cities at the end of his year as the Optimist International President. The last jaunt took about 24 days of cross-country plane trips covering 16,000 miles and speaking at 10 Optimist District meetings.

Unusual and beautiful gifts, inclement weather and marvelous welcoming groups proved to be the highlights of this tour. The first visit was to the town of Pine Bluff, Ark., but due to the weather the top Optimist officer and his wife were rerouted to Little Rock and back again to Pine Bluff for the scheduled meeting.

Optimists and their wives did not let the weather dampen their spirits and made each arrival of the Sternbergs something to remember.

Visit Victorian Homes
Pine Bluff proved to be a typical Arkansas town as both Gene and Ruth Sternberg found during an afternoon tour. They were privileged to see a number of Victorian homes in the area and particularly the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pierson, who had completed an extensive restoration to a home built in the 1850 era.

Pierson is the owner of a farm most bow and arrow concerned and is quite adept as an archer. Displayed in the den of the Pierson home was an eleven-foot polar bear shot with the bow and arrow and a six-foot grizzly bear brought down with a single arrow, shot by Pierson. While in Pine Bluff, the International President was made an official "Arkansas Traveler," and given a camera, while his travel kit was placed in a group of his shell dish by the Optimist Mrs. Club of Pine Bluff.

After a day at home, the travelers resumed their tour, going to San Diego, Calif., where the weather has a reputation of always being "bright and sunny."

Sunny the Last Day
"We never experienced a decent day of any such climate," Sternberg noted, "until the day we boarded the plane to leave when the sun decided to appear."

A welcoming by a 60-member band and a drill team provided a bright spot in an otherwise overcast arrival.

The tourists were taken to a hotel, the site of the meeting, in the "largest chauffeur-driven Cadillac" ever seen by the visitors.

Standing on the balcony of their hotel room the Sternbergs were taken a repeat performance by the musical group and drill team.

Inside Info on Pueblo
A rather unusual yet informative session took place with the Governor of the San Diego Optimist District, Alan Dakes, who is also the father-in-law of the executive officer of the Pueblo. Sternberg received a detailed story of the Pueblo situation.

As the return trip home began, their plane left the Los Angeles area in the midst of huge black clouds, which was the beginning of the rain problem that plagued the California residents, causing so much property damage.

Sternberg said, "I made the observation, on my trip to attend the Rose Bowl games and activities, that the houses built on stilts along the hillside would not remain there if the weather took a decided turn for the worse." This was not well received by the natives but proved to be true.

After visiting the west coast the next step on the itinerary was to the east coast and Clinton, N. J. The last leg of this journey was made by helicopter from New York to New Jersey, giving the well-traveled couple a bit of uneasy feeling. Traveling by helicopter is quite different from a large jet plane, Sternberg remarked.

Ride in Rolls Royce
At the airport, they were met by a delegation who provided a Rolls Royce, used previously by Richard and Liz Burton, on a recent benefit visit.

Here the pattern for living is so different than in the midwest, it took some understanding by the visitors to adjust to their pace. People in this eastern city delight in having fun and continue from early evening until quite late, by introducing every person of note and having a merry time during the dinner hour," Sternberg said. the evening program was a surprise to the International President, he said, "I began my talk at 10:45 to a group that had been having fun since 6:30. They all quieted down and were most attentive, but it's pretty frightening to begin a talk in such an atmosphere."

Going on to Baltimore, the party was met by a number of Optimists and a representative of the mayor who presented the Constellation with a key to the city. This key held a special interest as it was made from timbers of the old U. S. Frigate Constellation, and in the head of the key was a commemorative coin made from the copper spikes of the Constellation.

Citation Key
The citation on the back of the key read, "As a symbol of our recognition of the key role played by the U. S. Navy and the ship of the U. S. Navy and the oldest vessel still afloat. The Constellation is being restored in Baltimore, her birthplace. The coin is from copper spikes from the historic ship and a lifetime pass to visit her anytime."

The evening guest was attended by 540 guests, a surprise, as Vice-President Agnew had his inaugural ball the same evening in Baltimore.

Revisiting the scene of his election as the International President, took Sternberg to Louisville, Ky., for the meeting of the Kentucky-West Virginia Division.

Here the out-of-town guest was privileged to present a charter to Boy Scout Troop organized in this administrative year as part of a Partners in Progress project.

Homemakers Corner

Creativity in Homemaking

Homemaking is one job that doesn't get the opportunity for women to express their creative talents, says Dorothy Goss, University of Illinois Extension home management specialist.

The homemaker's work revolves around the needs of her family and provides the opportunity to vary the schedule and methods of handling the numerous tasks to be accomplished. Why do we hear so much about the plight of the dissatisfied housewife and the monotony of her work? One of the problems is the homemaker's lack of knowledge and skill. Obviously, one is not born knowing how to run a household efficiently; this job takes knowledge plus practice. Skipping from one poorly completed task to another or from one uncompleted task to another causes frustration and discouragement. In fact, you may even convince yourself that you have no talents.

Gaining the know-how needed to make the household run smoothly takes time and effort. It's wise to concentrate on learning how to do a few tasks well before trying to do everything. Help is available from a great many sources—extension meetings, adult classes, government publications, books and magazines. Once the basic principles of a task are mastered, you can begin to individualize the process and use your talents effectively.

Time spent in learning to do a task well will pay dividends both in time saved and in satisfaction received.

Home Laundry Sanitation
Research shows that bacteria can remain alive through home laundering, whether it is done in individually owned washing machines or in public laundries used by many families. The bacteria can also remain alive on the surface of the machine and be transferred from one load of clothes to another.

The survival of bacteria in freshly washed clothes is primarily a modern problem. Many homemakers formerly boiled their clothes, particularly if there was sickness in the family. And the boiling temperature destroyed the bacteria.

The problem with modern automatic equipment, however, is that boiling water was replaced with hot water at lower temperatures. And neither the water temperature nor the detergents used in today's automatic washers can be relied on to reduce the number of bacteria to a safe level. Consequently, the homemaker who wants a sanitized wash must add a disinfectant to her laundry. Research indicates that a suitable disinfectant can reduce the number of bacteria to a safe level and prevent or reduce the spread of bacterial infections.

For additional information about sanitizing your wash, get a copy of the USDA publication, "Sanitizing in Home Laundry," from your Extension adviser's office, Box 68, 900 Hillsboro, Edwardsville, Ill.

The publication suggests practical, easy-to-use methods of sanitizing your home laundry. It reports on four types of disinfectants found effective in killing bacteria during laundering. It also lists specific brands of disinfectants available on the market that will disinfect your wash.

Knowing Nuclear Hazards
Key to Personal Survival

The nationwide U.S. civil defense system, which is being enlarged and improved constantly, is designed to help Americans survive and recover from nuclear war. Its heart is a fallout shelter system which could save the lives of millions of persons that would otherwise be lost because of radioactive fallout.

The civil defense system also includes warning and communication systems, local government organizations for emergency operations, and other resources. If an attack should come, many lives could be saved through a nuclear attack plan by government and private citizens.

The chances of surviving and recovering from a nuclear attack are much better if citizens understand the dangers of an attack.

Learn the actions that should be taken in the event of an attack.

Be prepared to take whatever action is necessary at the time of an attack.

Shoe Buying Tips

Whether to buy shoes of leather or synthetic materials poses problems. Leather will mold to the shape of your feet while synthetic material retains the same shape as when new.

Each material is better suited for different types of feet. If you have a wide foot, leather is a good choice. But if your shoes tend to become misshapen quickly, perhaps the synthetic material will be more beneficial as well as economical.

Synthetic material shoes are not recommended for feet that tend to perspire heavily unless highly absorbent socks, like a woolen sock, are worn.

As you fit synthetic shoes, be sure that they are large enough. You cannot depend on their stretching and molding to the feet as leather shoes do.

The new shoe styles are kind to your feet. Square toes and low heels guard against unnecessary foot fatigue and discomfort. Generally speaking, buy shoes roomy enough at the tip so that you can wiggle big toes when you stand.

After a day of housekeeping and a night of partying treat your feet to stretch and flex exercises and a warm-water and bath-oil soak.

Always wear stockings to guard against blisters and calluses. To relax overworked feet, lie with feet elevated above your head for a half hour.

Protection Is Possible
People can protect themselves against fallout radiation, and have a good chance of surviving a nuclear attack. Radiation does not become radioactive and thereby dangerous to other people. Radiation sickness is not contagious or infectious, and one person cannot "catch it" from another person.

Fallout Would Be Widespread
The distribution of fallout particles after a nuclear attack would depend on what part of the country had been attacked, and the number of weapons used, as well as wind currents, weather conditions and other factors. However, there is no way of predicting in advance what areas of the country would be affected, or how soon the particles would fall back to earth at a particular location.

Some communities might get a heavy accumulation of fallout, while others might get little or none. No area in the U.S. could be sure of not getting fallout, and it is probable that some particles would be deposited on most of the country.

Areas close to a nuclear explosion might receive fallout within 15 to 30 minutes. On the other hand, it might take 6 to 10 hours or more for the particles to drift down on a community 100 or 200 miles away.

Generally, the first 24 hours after fallout began to settle would be the most dangerous period to a community's residents. The heavier particles falling during that time would still be highly radioactive and give off strong rays. Lighter particles falling later would have lost much of their radiation high in the atmosphere.

Fallout Causes Radiation Sickness
The invisible gamma rays given off by fallout particles can produce radiation sickness, which is caused by physical and chemical changes in the cells of the body. If a person receives a large dose of fallout radiation, he will die. But if he receives only a small or medium dose, his body will repair itself and he will get well. The same dose received over a short period of time is more

Grain Sign-Up Ends March 21 for Farmers

Only two weeks remain for farmers to take advantage of the 1969 farm programs. Lee Rogers, chief manager of the Madison county, ASCS office urged farmers to study their farming plans for 1969 and consider the advantages of participating.

Loan guarantees will be available at $1.10 for corn and 1.33 for wheat on farms in the programs, he said. In addition, there will be diversion payments, price support payments and wheat certificate payments. These programs are more attractive this year, Rogers said, because our yields have increased in Madison county for both wheat and corn, also the payment rates are higher. This makes for the most attractive programs we have ever been around.

The sign-up ends March 21, can remain alive through home laundering, whether it is done in individually owned washing machines or in public laundries used by many families. The bacteria can also remain alive on the surface of the machine and be transferred from one load of clothes to another.

Japanese Girl at GCHS Yearns to Attend SIU

An "impossible dream" has come true for Miss Yumiko Horita, who now yearns for one additional "impossibility" to come true.

The hope that was realized was the chance to live and study in America. She is a Granite City high school student and has been an informal member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Rowden, 2525 Angela drive, during the 1968-69 school year.

Her next dream is a chance to spend a year or two studying at the Southern Illinois University Vocational-Technical Institute in Carbondale.

It is only a dream up to this point, because she has not yet arranged a source of finances for the extension of her stay in this country.

She is a good student, with a special flair for art. Her major obstacle has been learning English, but she has made considerable progress during her stay in the Quad-Cities.

Somewhat less of an obstacle has been her conversion to the American form of basketball, her favorite participation sport. Although happy to be a world traveler, she is not as proud of the many "traveling" calls assessed against her in girls' basketball games at GCHS. U. S. rules permit less foot movement while in possession of the ball.

Likes Quiet But Not the Cold

In an interview with the Press-Record this week, Yumiko said she is impressed with this community because it is "very quiet," a situation not associated with girls' basketball but one that she appreciates for a residential area. Angela drive is located in the New Haven area east of Maryville road.

What doesn't she like about Granite City? "It's very cold," she said, taking note of the low temperatures recorded in recent days and months. Japan has a more temperate climate but her home town of Tabuse is "bigger and noisier" than this area, she reports.

Joins Family of Seven Here

Her hosts, the Rowdens, are both teachers in the Granite City school system. He is a counselor at Griggley Junior high school, and his wife, Mrs. Mary K. Rowden, is a kindergarten teacher at Emerson grade school.

They have five children—Anne, who is in the fifth grade, Carolyn, fourth grade, Julia, first grade, and four-year-old twins, Roy and Pam. Yumiko would attend part of their basement to create a master bedroom and turned one of the three upstairs bedrooms over to Yumiko.

"We determined during our early correspondence that Yumiko would attend Granite City high school, and we received special permission for her to attend our school from Supt. Bob Davis, Rowden relates.

Many Preliminary Details

"We exchanged many letters with the immigration department and signed many papers. In order to sponsor a foreign student, the American family must agree to fully support her during the stay in this country, and the family must provide evidence of its ability to provide this support.

"Yumiko paid her own transportation to this country, and we have supported her since that time.

"She visited a distant relative in Pasadena, Calif., before arriving in Granite City last June.

"During the summer vacation, she and our entire family—including our large Dalmatian dog—traveled with our tent camper through the states of Missouri, Iowa, South Dakota, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, California, Nevada, Utah, Colorado and Kansas.

America Big, Beautiful

"She was greatly impressed with the size and beauty of our country, and especially with the friendliness of the people we met along the way.

"Yumiko has been attending GCHS regularly since September. She has met many new friends and has been very impressed with the friendly attitude, helpfulness and generosity the students and teachers have shown toward her.

"She hopes to be admitted to the SIU Vocational-Technical Institute next January.

New Sponsor Sought

"In the meantime, she is hoping to find another family to sponsor her stay in this country until school starts, because the year of our sponsorship comes to an end with the close of school."

Those who are considering sponsoring Yumiko—families, organizations or firms—may contact her or Mr. and Mrs. Rowden by calling 931-4774 during the evening.

Rowden recalls that the experiment in international friendship began about two years ago when he noticed a newspaper item stating that a Japanese girl student wanted an American family to provide her with a place to live so that she could attend school in the U.S.

"My wife and I thought it would be interesting for our children to get to know someone from a different country.

Once Stationed in Japan

"Also, I had been stationed in Japan for two years while serving in the Air Force, and I found the Japanese to be friendly and intelligent people.

"We began to correspond with Yumiko at that time. She is the youngest of three daughters. Her father is a retired civil servant and now works in an export office.

"Both older sisters have attended a university in Japan. One teaches mathematics in a Japanese high school, and the other is a dormitory counselor."

Hopes to Become Artist

The 19-year-old student, who has completed the equivalent of high school in her native country, reports that her parents and "two big sisters" reside in the Tabuse area. She hopes to return to Japan after study in Carbondale and to become a commercial artist.

In addition to an uncle in the U. S. this summer for a while who teaches at Monmouth College in Illinois, and she expects to visit him during the summer.

She is "very glad" that the Rowdens have been able to "adopt" her for a year. While homesick on occasions, she has set her sights on spending at least one more year in Illinois, which "I like very much."

She likes not only a few aspects of America but "everything."

Accepted by Students

"There is special warmth in her voice when she thinks back on the way local teenagers have accepted her, including her in a wide variety of their activities.

In addition to art and English, she has been studying foods and clothing.

Regardless of whether or not her year in the United States becomes two or three, the opportunity to tour this nation, reside here and share the life of the Rowden family has been an unforgettable episode which has had an immense impact on her knowledge, understanding and outlook.

She has had an extremely happy and busy time throughout her stay here. The Quad-City area is noted as one of the friendliest communities in the world.

Disagreeing with the saying that "you can't go home again," she does plan to do just that. But she admits the basic truth in the title of the uncompleted Thomas Wolfe novel; it will never be quite the same again in Japan, now that Yumiko has seen Granite City.

Roca Club to Install New Officers Sunday

The Roca Young Men's Club will install officers at 7 p.m. Sunday at Parson's House South.

Results of a recent election will be disclosed at the installation.

Nominated were Mike Loftus, president; Ralph Thompson and Earl Anderson for vice-presidents; Thompson, Tom Rushing and Cardwell for treasurer; Bruce Buttery and Kurt Koezer for secretary; and Harry Diak and Kuehler for director.

Chairman of standing committees selected by the board are Ken Townsend, publicity; Diak, Sweetheart advisor; Mike DeRuntz, bulletin board; Tom Loman, album; and Dave Brewer, recognition and calendar reports.

The program may include a talk by a former Roca member who spent several years in the Chinese republic of Taiwan. The agenda includes selection of six nominees for club Spring Sweetheart and a possible trip to Kiel auditorium in St. Louis to see the Steppenwolf Singers later this month.

The regular Sunday afternoon meeting will not be held.

Jerry Lee Lybarger Named to Dean's List

Jerry Lee Lybarger was named to the Dean's Honor Roll at the Northeast Missouri State College, Kirksville, for the 1968-69 winter quarter. It was announced this week by Dean of Instruction A. L. Fritschel.

The list contains the names of 1165 students who have maintained a B average or better for the winter quarter. Included are students from seven foreign countries and 16 states. Sixty-three maintained perfect scholastic records receiving the top grade of A in all of their classes.

2 Students' Tour to Include Study of Hippies, Diplomats

Tomorrow two Granite City high school girls will depart for New York City and Washington, D. C., where they will have the opportunity to experience what is described as a "picture getting and not a picture taking experience."

Miss Terry Hulse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Hulse, 2904 Fortune drive, and Miss Mary Beth Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gordon, 3152 Colgate place, will leave from the St. Louis Christian Board of Publication Building. The trip is sponsored by the Illinois Disciples of Christ and the Christian Church of Missouri.

Participating will be about 60 students who are high school juniors and seniors and 20 adults from all over Illinois and Missouri.

Pressed By Research

A 300-word theme was submitted by each girl to the St. Louis office and forwarded to main offices in Bloomington. Two thousand and research papers also were prepared by Miss Hulse on "India-Problems and Promise" and by Miss Gordon on "Problems and Promise in Education in Africa."

In the 300-words, they explained their reasons for wanting to make the trip.

The group will be learning much historical and government facts, and the local students will have an opportunity, through first-hand experience, to become more familiar with the manner in which the American government system works.

Acceptance of their theme and research papers made them eligible for scholarships available for youth of the St. Louis metropolitan area. The fact that both were chosen is regarded as an unusual honor for their community.

Pontoon Teen Town to Hold Balloon Dance

The Pontoon Teen Town will hold a Balloon Dance from 7:30 to 11 p.m. Friday at the Pontoon Beach fair hall. "Eddie and the Chaparrals" will be featured.

Admission will be 75 cents with a membership card and $1 without one.

At a business meeting Monday night, plans to hold a Parents' dance in the near future were discussed. The ways and means a committee submitted plans for fund-raising projects to help finance an eventual permanent home for the Teen Town.

Fourteen members attended the meeting, and charter members held a farewell party for Larry McCabe, who left Wednesday morning for Lackland Air Force Base, Tex.

Adults interested in serving as possible counselors are asked to phone 931-4053. The Teen Town has extended a welcome to parents, friends and other interested adults to attend the dance tomorrow night.

Form Groups of Ten
During their trip, they will spend three days in New York and two days in Washington.

In New York, they will be in "family groups" for free time, sightseeing and discussing the day's activities.

A family group consists of four girls, four boys and one man and one woman leader. They will tour the United Nations building, attend committee meetings or other sessions at the UN and also hear speakers from this country and abroad. Some of the activities will take place at the church center of the United Nations.

Next Tuesday they will attend a luncheon in the UN delegates' dining room.

Attend Broadway Show
They will also have a chance to attend a Broadway play one evening while in New York.

The young "leaders of tomorrow" say they are thrilled at their opportunity to "experience and learn from a Christian educational trip." They believe it will help them as they continue their studies in high school and college.

Rev. James R. Craddock, minister of Central Christian Church, has expressed joy at their selection and thinks they will return with as much valuable knowledge as did two church members, Karen Larson and Christopher McCarty, who were able to make a similar trip a few years ago.

Plan Talks to Groups
When they return, they will present special talks to church groups and youth meetings and also share their experiences with fellow students.

"The Christian's role as a peacemaker" will receive much attention from the group during the tour.

It is hoped to become more aware of the root causes of war. They will study both the UN peacekeeping and peace-making efforts, for example.

And, aware that human relationships are a major part of war and peace issues, they will take part in such a contrasting activity as interviewing leaders of an experimental ministry with "hippies" in Greenwich Village, located in lower Manhattan.

Mary Beth is a member of the GCHS Spanish club and is extremely interested in the fields of English and science in her school work. She is currently studying violin at SIU-S under Kent Perry and plans to become a teacher after completing college.

They are to return home by bus on Saturday, March 22.

Terry is a member of the GCHS band, in which she plays the flute. She is a member of the Modern Music Masters, Band Letterman's club, Spanish club and Red Peppers. She serves as secretary of the Central Youth Fellowship at Central Christian Church, where she is active in all phases of church work.

SIU-SW Placement Office Offers 'Package' Service

Graduates at Southern Illinois University - Southwest campus, receive what amounts to a package deal and a bonus for signing with the placement service before graduation, according to David R. Van Horn, assistant director of placement services.

What's more, benefits from the "contract" run for an indefinite period of time with no charge for contract negotiations.

The "package deal" SIU students receive includes private interviews on campus with representatives from businesses and industries throughout the country, counseling sessions on any aspects of employment after graduation, and free access to a library on companies and positions they have available.

4161 interviewed - Last year 4161 students were interviewed by representatives from 386 different organizations. The expansion of private interview facilities to accommodate eight company representatives at any one time is indicative of the use made of the placement services.

The growth of the University is also taxing available space for student records, according to Van Horn, who stated that the present level of growth indicates that microfilming might be needed in the near future. One of the biggest bonuses offered by the placement service is life-time usage of facilities free of charge.

Big Demand - In addition, the department will mail, upon any company's request, credentials on any student registered. In 1968 more than 5000 sets of credentials were mailed to employers from the new campus.

During the past year, graduates with non-technical background entering the business world averaged $894; experienced teachers with a bachelor's degree averaged $6028 per year, and experienced classroom teachers starting with a master's degree averaged $7041 per year.

Van Horn stated that these starting salaries are on the increase along with the number of companies and schools who come on campus to interview students. "Fifteen to 20 new companies have already been added this year," he said.

After two to four years of academic competition, SIU graduates find the deal offered by SIU's placement department a fitting tribute before turning pro.

A feature article by a Granite City high school junior appears in this month's issue of "Illinois History," a magazine for young people published by the Illinois State Historical Society.

The author is Miss Connie K. Koester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Koester, 2415 Delmar avenue, a student in several accelerated courses at the local high school.

The March edition of "Illinois History" primarily deals with relationship between state, country and local governments and the community.

The 16-year-old Granite City girl bases her article on the depression period of the early 1930s and efforts in the community to assist the unemployed and impoverished.

According to the bibliography accompanying Miss Koester's feature, research for the article was gathered from seven issues of the Granite City Press-Record, printed March 24 through May 1, 1931, and from James F. Baxter's "History of Granite City."

Test of paper - The following is a reprint of "Coping With a Crisis" by Connie Koester.

"The great depression in the 1930's not only affected large cities, but it also reached its destructive fingers into smaller towns such as Granite City, Illinois, an industrial town located across the Mississippi River from St. Louis, Missouri. It is during times like those that local governments must set up special committees in order to cope with the problems.

In November 1930 to aid unemployed, impoverished families. The aid administered by the committee took the form of coal, food, clothing and drugs.

Funds Hit Bottom - "The relief committee operated smoothly through Tuesday, March 24, 1931. At that time the bottom of the fund was reached with only $706.30 remaining in the treasury with an average of $316.25 needed per week to administer the duties of the mayor's committee.

The mayor and the city council appealed to the citizens of Granite City for more money so that fifteen hundred parents and children would not be without food, coal or clothing.

"Some contributions arrived from private industries in the city, but this was still not enough for the committee's operations. After a special meeting of the city council on March 26, 1931, it was decided to borrow $5000 from the interest fund of the city and $5000 from the public library fund.

These emergency measures enabled the relief project to continue. In April 1931, some unions in Granite City decided to give a six-day carnival. However, the city council stated that they would be assessed $100 per day according to a city ordinance. The unions offered the relief fund half of the profits if the city council would suspend the assessment. This, of course, would greatly benefit the fund and not affect the unions' profits. After considering the urgent need for additional money, the council unanimously approved the proposal.

"During the month of April, the money in the relief fund decreased steadily. On Friday, April 10, 1931, there was less than $500 remaining. Four days later the fund was down to $300 and finally, on Tuesday, April 28, 1931, it was announced that the relief fund would close the following day if more money was not collected immediately. There was less than $100 left.

Public Called Upon - "Later that day the city council voted to continue the relief fund, even though the supply of money was entirely exhausted. The mayor decided to request each employer to prepare a list of his employees who could afford to contribute to the relief fund. Special appeals would then be made to these people to give two percent of their wages, which would amount to $4000 per month. Before this time the fund had collected only $6000 in the preceding six months.

"Despite the mayor's continued appeals and the committee's hard work, contributions did not supply enough money to operate the committee and it was disbanded in July 1931.

"During critical times such as a depression, local governments must initiate special projects to provide for the people in the community. The financial needs of the citizens of Granite City were too large for the mayor's relief committee to satisfy, but the committee did give temporary aid to the unemployed until the federal government with its greater financial resources could provide permanent relief.

"The mayor's relief fund, created in the dark days of the depression, will never be forgotten by many grateful citizens of Granite City."

Southern Illinois University Southwest has an enrollment of more than 10,000 students, but is only in its second year of intercollegiate sports, fielding teams in soccer, basketball, golf, cross country and baseball. Its soccer team, coached by Bob Guelker, posted an unbeaten 11-0 record last season.

EIU Defers Building Projects Until Fall

Three Eastern Illinois University building projects have been deferred until after July 1 in response to Gov. Richard Ogilvie's request for economy and expense reduction for the remainder of the present biennium, EIU President Quincy Doudna announced this week.

The deferred projects, involving about $4.3 million in appropriated state funds, and $1.2 million in approved Federal grant requests, include the addition of two wings to the EIU Science building adjacent to the McAfee Gymnasium, an addition to the Fine Arts Center, and the remodeling of the Student Services Building formerly the Practical Arts Building.

President Doudna said additional economy measures and deferrals of expenditures would be announced shortly. It was estimated the construction projects will be deferred until early next fall.

Students Raise $3600 For Kidney Transplant

Student organizations on the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus have raised $3600 in a one-week campaign to help pay for a kidney transplant operation for an area girl.

The funds were raised for Janet Meltenin, 17-year-old Bethalto high school sophomore.

The SIU-SW fund-raising drive was tied to the school's annual Beauty and the Beast contest, which last year raised only $100. It is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, a national Science building adjacent to the McAfee Gymnasium, an addition to the Fine Arts Center, and the remodeling of the Student Services Building formerly the Practical Arts Building.

Winner of the contest was an independent group, Frogs Anonymous, with a total of $900. Their Beauty and the Beast candidates, Kathy Tonn, Caseyville, and Gary Allison, East St. Louis, resigned over the contest climaxing the week-long dance.

Simon Urges College To Aid Problem Areas

Illinois Lt. Gov. Paul Simon of Troy has called upon McKendree College to "launch an attack on misery and hopelessness" in East St. Louis and other communities bothered by social problems.

Addressing 400 college and community guests during the Founder's Day Convocation which marked the 141st anniversary of McKendree College, Lt. Gov. Simon stated "our colleges and universities have a large role to play in attacking the problems of the community. Every institution must serve society, or it will not—and should not—endure. Withdrawal would not be in the interest of the interest of the institution or the community," the state leader asserted.

The official urged McKendree to take a prominent role in educating youngsters of East St. Louis' impoverished areas. "McKendree can do more to introduce ghetto children to the wonders and the adventure of learning," he noted, "I hope it will."

Other anniversary activities included the professional, comprised of 50 members of McKendree's faculty and staff, a review by College President Eric Rackham of McKendree's history and goals, introduction of trustees, a social hour in Denen Center and the president's luncheon in Ames Hall.

Medicare, Social Security Questions and Answers

Answers to most-often asked questions concerning Social Security and Medicare are being presented to the Press-Record by the district office.

Anyone with questions may mail them to Social Security Administration, 680 Missouri avenue, Room 104, East St. Louis, Ill. 62201. Ralph Brasher, district manager, said his office staff also will answer inquiries by telephone (274-2200, Ext. 329 or 397-5530, Ext. 329).

The latest questions and answers follow:

Q. I dropped my coverage under the voluntary doctor bill insurance part of Medicare last year. Can I sign up again?

A. Yes, you can re-enroll during the first three months of the year. You can re-enroll only once and only within three years after you first cancelled your coverage.

Q. I receive widows benefits now and will be 65 next year. Will I be covered automatically by Medicare at that time.

A. You will receive a notice about Medicare from the Social Security Administration several months before your 65th birthday. Hospital insurance coverage will be automatic for you at the time but you will need to complete and return the enrollment form to start your medical insurance coverage. In order for the medical insurance to start with the month you reach 65, social security must receive the enrollment card before the beginning of the month in which your 65th birthday falls.

Q. I am 68 years old and do not have social security. I did not enroll in Medicare when I started. How can I sign up now?

A. Bring proof of your date of birth to the social security office between now and April 1. This is the last chance for you to enroll. Because you are signing up late, your premiums will be 10% for each full year that you delayed.

Errors in Mathematics Delay Income Tax Refunds

Mathematical errors by Springfield District taxpayers have caused 1498 income tax refunds to be delayed so far this year, Jay G. Philpott, IRS District director for central and southern Illinois, said today.

The mathematical errors, Philpott said, will result in some taxpayers receiving a smaller or larger refund while others will receive a bill for additional tax due.

Under the IRS Automatic Data Processing System, computers verify mathematical computations. When an error is detected IRS must make the necessary correction before a refund can be issued.

In the first 280,472 returns processed so far at the IRS Service Center in Kansas City, Mo., many types of errors other than mathematical have been detected.

These include 648 who failed to sign their return. No tax return is accepted without the taxpayer's signature; two signatures are required if it is a joint return. Unsigned returns have to be sent back to taxpayers for signature before refunds can be processed.

Processing of 682 other returns was delayed because required W-2 Forms were missing.

Philpott advises taxpayers to include a W-2 Form from each employer for whom they worked. Employees who lose their W-2 Forms should get a duplicate from their employer. Philpott asked taxpayers to use the Form 1040 pre-addressed name label that came with their return. The label contains information vital

SIU to Offer MDTA Truck Driving Course

Training for 40 heavy equipment operators and dump truck drivers will be conducted by Southern Illinois University-Carbondale campus under the federal Manpower Development and Training Act in cooperation with unions and management. Applications must be made through the Illinois State Employment Service.

The two projects are the first conducted under the MTA in cooperation with union locals and are designed to train members of disadvantaged groups in 14 southern Illinois counties, according to William E. Nagel, associate dean of the SIU Division of Technical and Adult Education.

A 12-week course to prepare heavy equipment operators to begin the trade at union entry level will start March 24, while three weeks of training for 20 dump truck drivers will start in mid-May, Nagel said. At least 50% of the trainees will be Negroes, he explained.

James Stuart Chapter Plans Activities for Observance of 50th Anniversary of DeMolays

Local DeMolay Chapter Organized in 1921

In celebrating the 50th anniversary of DeMolay, the local chapter of Granite City Chapter Order of DeMolay now known as the James Stuart Chapter, was formed in 1921 as the first chapter in Illinois and the 86th in the now international movement.

The Date of Letters Temporarily was received on May 24, 1921 and Date of Institution was July 5, 1921 and the Charter received on August 15, 1921.

Granite City Chapter 221 Royal Arch Masons was and still is the sponsoring body of the local chapter.

Charter DeMolay members were Theodore Graham, Glenn Arthur Graham, Everett L. Lyons, Irvy V. Todd, Sidney J. West, Joseph J. G. Williams, Walter J. Kruescheck, Edward Pauly, D. Raymond Morgan, Gerold Daniels, Ralph J. Primrose, Harold W. Bramer all now deceased; and Byron Proppes, Otto Hoeselich, William J. Mehl, Walter W. H. Kleffman, John M. Harris, William H. Weddell, Elmer Hill, William Huber, Thomas J. Griffith, - Walmer Brummer, Roland A. Mueller, Eckert Roman, George H. Baesschmidt, Frank F. Markgraf, David E. John, Frank Dunn, Ernest E. Viehl Jr., Buel Cotter, and Harold W. Bramer.

During the first year a membership of 108 was attained with about one third of the members being East St. Louis residents. The following year the A. D. Chapter of East St. Louis was formed.

Civic Group for Youth
The DeMolay Chapter has established itself in the community as a civic organization for youth, teaching the great lessons of filial love, reverence, courtesy, comradeship, fidelity, cleanliness and patriotism. The lessons taught in the two degrees, the Initiatory and DeMolay, the belief in God, support of the public schools, toleration towards all mankind, together with the precepts of the order have developed for our community a generation of better citizens, better husbands and fathers.

In addition to ritualistic, social and religious activities, a varied athletic program has been actively conducted during the years. Scores of trophies, won by DeMolay teams in district, jurisdictional, state and national contests in basketball, bowling, golf, ping pong, softball, tennis, and track are displayed in the lobby of the Masonic Temple.

A national DeMolay basketball title was won by the Granite City team in Tulsa, Okla., in 1939. Two state Master Councilors of Illinois have been members of the local chapter. R. Gilbert Watson and Irvin State Jr.

Depression Years

During the depression of the 1930's the local chapter was at its lowest ebb in activity in any time during its 48 year history. There was generally a lack of things to do and the chapter was in dire need of leadership.

In the summer of 1933 James Stuart took over as Chapter Advisor until someone else could be found to assume the role. He continued in the position for 32 years until his death, Oct. 3, 1965.

His enthusiastic energetic leadership was an inspiration to the 3500 youths who came under the direct influence of his guidance and to whom he was affectionately known as "Uncle Jimmy." Through his guidance the DeMolay chapter became a vital, effective force in providing useful and needed activities for youth. It was for his untiring efforts on behalf of the community youth, both in and out of DeMolay that the chapter name was changed this year to "James Stuart Chapter."

His time and talents were not only devoted to DeMolay but he encouraged other community youth to attend college and was instrumental in helping them secure scholarships and financial help to enable them to attend school.

The local chapter has an active Mother's Club who serve refreshments at the first meeting of every month, prepare and serve the chapter's annual chili supper, keep the chapter's installation regalia, officers robes in other offices. The present man, president; Mrs. Margaret Lowe, vice-president; Mrs. Betty Ebrecht, secretary; Mrs. Ruth Norton, treasurer; and Mrs. June Lux, chaplain.

The Founding of DeMolay

The Order of DeMolay, an international youth organization that offers teenage boys the training and guidance they need to become better citizens, was founded in 1919 as the result of a young social worker's desire to provide fatherly advice and counsel for a boy whose father had been killed in a hunting accident.

The youth, Louis Lower, went to Frank S. Land, the 28-year-old director of the Social Service Department of the Scottish Rite Temple in Kansas City, Mo., to ask for a job and to seek counsel.

Frank Land gave young Lower a job, for he had been a friend of his father, and after frequent talks with Lower, he realized that the boy's predicament was not confined to him alone, but extended to countless other boys whether they had fathers or not. It pointed out a need for a new youth organization—one that would provide the proper training and guidance to better citizenship that no other boys' group offered.

Land told Lower he would help form a new boys' club and for him to bring some of his high school friends and they would get organized. And so it was in February 1919, Louis Lower and eight of his friends met in the Scottish Rite Temple with Frank S. Land for the purpose of forming a new boys' organization. Little did any of them dream, least of all Frank Land, that in just a few years the movement would be active in several countries and territories outside the United States and would have a membership of over one hundred thousand boys.

The idea of a club that would be both educational and inspirational was well received by all nine. The question was raised as to what to call this new organization. Frank Land began reciting many of the famous names in history, but none of them appealed especially to the boys. Then one of the youths suggested that since they were meeting in a Masonic Temple that some of the historic figures connected with Masonry should be recounted.

It was then that Frank Land mentioned the name of Jacques DeMolay. The name immediately captured each of the nine young minds. When they heard how, as the last Grand Master of the Knights Templar, he died as a martyr to loyalty and toleration, they unanimously agreed that DeMolay was their choice of names.

Mr. Land advised them not to act in haste, to think the names over and decide for sure at the next meeting. On March 18, 1919, the nine youths along with twenty-four of their friends, met again in the Masonic Temple and formally organized the Order of DeMolay. It was not until some twenty years later that Frank Land realized that this March 18 was the anniversary date of the death of Jacques DeMolay in 1314.

Farm Column

By WARREN W. BUNDY
Madison County
Extension Adviser

Farm Machinery Costs

One of the largest expenses of modern farming is the cost of owning and operating farm machinery.

People who like country living on a small acreage and commute to a full-time job in town often invest more in machinery than they can possibly recover from their "farm" earnings. They ask, "How can I earn a small profit to help toward the taxes?" The answer is not easy. Their fixed costs are spread over too small a volume of business.

But full-time farmers must earn a profit to stay in business. Increasing costs of new machinery combined with limited use for some machines cause them to consider leasing specialized machinery or having work done by custom operators.

Machinery costs may be classified as either ownership or operating costs. Ownership costs include depreciation, taxes, housing and insurance to mention a few. Operating costs include fuel, grease and oil.

If repair costs are included as a percentage of new machine cost, the ownership cost will usually be from 15 to 20% of initial machine costs each year.

Custom Operator Rates

And don't forget to include the cost of your own labor when comparing machinery and custom costs, because labor is usually included in the custom rate.

It is also advisable to weigh machinery cost against possible crop losses due to untimely custom work.

A University of Illinois circular which lists common custom rates and machine rental rates is available at the county extension office.

Part of spring planning includes checking farm equipment and machinery for needed repairs before the planting season starts.

Many delays from breakdowns, and accidents, can be prevented by making needed repairs before planting starts.

After replacing worn parts, be sure all exposed revolving parts are properly shielded. Make sure latches are in good condition. Provide lighting on equipment, especially if you move implements on public highways. Equip tractors and trucks with fire extinguishers. Nutrient deficiencies.

No secondary nutrient deficiency.

26 Employees of ASF Receive GED Certificates

Twenty-six American Steel Foundries' employees received recognition for educational achievement at a dinner held at the Travelodge. It was announced Tuesday by A. P. Steinhilber, works manager.

They received either elementary or General Educational Development (GED) certificates, the equivalent of a high school diploma, under a program initiated at the ASF plant last September.

The program enables company employees to enroll in the classes at the plant, during their non-working hours. This is a cooperative effort between the company, local unions, the local school district and the Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction, Steinhilber explained.

Employees receiving certificates from Wilbur Trimpe, Madison county superintendent of schools, were: Mitchell Aramow, Harold E. Brown, Willie C. Brown, Elmer L. Buckley, Stanley E. Carpenter, William O. Colbert, Frank Czynski, Kenneth V. Dunaway, Wayne L. Elmore, Joseph C. Gibson, Wilson Lappe, John P. Mezky, James C. Nelson.

Peter J. Pasek, Francis A. Peters, Emil Plaminek, Charles L. Sedlacek, Carl Sexton, Henry Stoces, Edwin A. Trame, Virgil B. Thole, Joseph P. Walder, Olle S. Walker, Charles C. Walters, James A. Lewis and Alex Matynski.

In addition to company and union representatives in attendance, special recognition was given to Eugene Briggs, assistant county superintendent of schools; B. J. Davis, superintendent of the Granite City school district; W. A. Witte-rangel, administrative assistant for adult education in the Granite City school district; Henry Bizer, counselor; and the instructors—Carroll Chmness, Ted Noeth, Fred Roth, Ray Seamen, Gus Falter, Al Wilson and Al Lewis.

Forty-two employees of the company have enrolled in this educational program, now in progress.

Test your soil every four to five years and let the pH test be your guide.

Broadcasting phosphate and potash fertilizer usually is the preferred method. When you broadcast suggested rates, you provide enough phosphorus and potassium for the current crop and leave the surplus to be used by following crops.

But you may want to consider banding phosphate and potash fertilizer if you know your soil is deficient and if you don't know how long you'll be farming the land. Banding allows you to apply less total fertilizer and still get acceptable yields. But band applications will not raise the soil-test levels of phosphorus and potassium.

A cupful of soil is the right amount for one soil sample. Don't go below plow depth when collecting the soil. One sample is needed for each four or five acres in the field.

Insect Problems

Household insects are a problem the year around. Recent calls were received about various insect problems in the house. Many kinds of cereal insects, roaches and others don't seem to mind whether it's winter or summer.

Entomologists at the University of Illinois and the Illinois Natural History survey have prepared insect control guides for 1969 for field crops, livestock, vegetables and household insects.

Copies of the guides are available at the county extension office. Ask for Circular 899, "Insect Control for Field Crops"; Circular 900, "Insect Control by the Homeowner"; Circular 897, "Insect Control for Commercial Vegetable Crops and Greenhouse Vegetables"; and Circular 898, "Insect Control for Livestock and Livestock Barns."

Booklet on Vet Benefits Available Through Mail

The 1969 edition of "Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents" is now available for 30 cents from the Superintendent of Documents in Washington, D. C., John B. Naser, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Chicago, announced today.

Published by the Veterans Administration, the 70-page booklet describes the major federal benefits enacted by Congress for America's 37 million living veterans, from the Spanish-American War to Vietnam, and for certain dependents and survivors.

Increased compensation payments to veterans with service-connected disabilities; liberalized education and training programs for Post-Korean veterans; first time in history, educational assistance for widows of those veterans who died as the result of military service and for wives of permanently and totally service-disabled veterans.

A higher ceiling on the maximum amount of a VA loan guaranty on GI homes (raised from $7500 to $12,000).

To assist veterans in contacting the VA for information and help, the booklet lists the address and phone number of 216 VA regional offices, hospitals and other installations in the U. S., Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone and the Philippine Islands.

The next best thing to a new car: a used car with a 100% guarantee.

Every major working part* is guaranteed 100% for 30 days or 1000 miles. Whichever comes first. So if during that time anything goes wrong with any of these parts, we'll replace it free.

Just because we're an authorized VW dealer, don't think we're only talking about used VWs. We inspect and guarantee every make on our lot.

For instance:

*engine • transmission • rear axle • front axle assemblies • brake system • electrical system.

Various Wild Birds Observed in Area

A report from a local resident on the arrival of many birds to the area which appeared in last Thursday's issue of the Press-Record drew a few comments from another local bird watching enthusiast who wrote the newspaper this week.

Edwin A. Hessel sr., who resides near Stallings grade school along Highway 162, wrote—"I was interested in the item about Mrs. Jerry Sladyk and the birds she saw. We have a pair of Robins, a pair of Cardinals, one Brown Thrasher and a Mocking Bird, which I saw for the first time on Jan. 3, and they are still here. We also have sparrows and starlings. They stay all winter and I feed them."

"I live across the road from Stallings school and I can look out of my back window at daylight and see thousands of black birds flying over until about nine o'clock. Then about 4:30 p.m. they fly back until dark. I was told they go down as far as Dexter, Mo., where they roost. I also was told they can't get rid of them because they have become a nuisance."

Hessel continued, "Two years ago I saw an albino blackbird in my yard and in May we saw a pair of Birds and canaries. The black birds go nesting when it gets warmer and when the young can fly (about August) they come back and if the corn is not too hard they can strip a ten-to-twelve-inch ear of corn clear down to the stalk in short order. They can make a field of corn look as if a hailstorm hit it," the letter-writer concluded.

Collide in Madison
Two cars were damaged in a collision at Second street and McCambridge avenue, Madison, at 11:45 p.m. Monday. Rev. John Ferguson To Speak Here Sunday

The guest speaker for Sunday evening's service at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church will be the Rev. John C. Ferguson of Chicago. This will be the fourth in the series of "Lenten Sunday Evenings" at Niedringhaus Church on the general theme "The Challenge of Christ in Today's World."

John C. Ferguson is a native of Cleveland, Ohio, where he received his elementary and secondary education. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree at Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio, and a Bachelor of Divinity degree at Oberlin Graduate School of Theology in Ohio.

He is a veteran of military service, having served in the former Army Air Corps, 96th Air Service Group, from 1942 to 1945. He spent 22 months overseas duty in the Mediterranean Theatre.

After serving pastorates in Ohio for ten years, Rev. Ferguson became the administrative assistant to the late Bishop Matthew W. Clair in St. Louis. He has since served as pastor of the Normal Park Methodist Church in Chicago, the Wesleyan United Methodist Church in Stockton, and, since November 1968, has been the pastor of St. James United Methodist Church in Chicago.

Rev. Ferguson will speak on "The Challenge of Christ to Human Brotherhood." The anthem will be sung by the choir under the direction of Warren G. Simpkins. Soloist will be Dr. Earl Millard.

Following the service, there will be opportunity for discussion with Rev. Ferguson in the church's fellowship hall, according to the minister, R. Paul Sims.

Supt. Trimpe Tells Kiwanis Of Benefits of Jr. College

Wilbur Trimpe, Madison County superintendent of schools, spoke at the Kiwanis dinner meeting Monday at the Rose Bowl, relating the status of Junior Colleges and Community Colleges in Illinois and pointing out advantages of community junior colleges.

Trimpe told 20 Kiwanis members there are 34 public Junior Colleges already established with 87% of all the population in the state of Illinois in a Junior College district. Seventy-five per cent of the cost of building and acquisition of site is furnished by the state and practically 50% of the cost of operation in the educational field of the Junior Colleges is furnished by the state, he said, adding, "thus making this the cheapest educational program ever offered to the people of the state of Illinois."

Trimpe told Kiwanians a Junior College is a two-year college and immediate educational opportunity for all high school graduates in the community; it provides terminal programs for those not seeking bachelors degrees; it provides opportunities for employed persons to improve their position in agriculture, business and industry.

Roy Feder was the program chairman and introduced the guest speaker.

Edward Moore, president, presided at the business at which time Melvin L. Gillie was nominated by the club for lieutenant governor of I.E.I. District 14. Members will be visiting all other clubs in District 14 campaigning for Gillie beginning this week.

Gillie has a 25-year perfect attendance record in the Kiwanis organization, accumulated in several different cities.

He first became a member in Ogden, Utah, in 1939 where he served on several committees and continued his work in the Kiwanis and with youth groups in Lincoln, Neb., Grand Rapids, Mich., and Cleveland, Ohio.

From 1957 to 1964 he was a member of Kiwanis club located in Newport News, Va., Indianapolis, Ind., Kalamazoo, Mich.
